Ex: Sam Smith (V) reported that...

Reporting Officer's Summary of Offense/Incident:

Hayseed called police when Shelly Smith (V), age 18, ran to his house, crying, with scrapes on her hands and knees and wearing a ripped red dress. Shelly Smith was interviewed at the Hayseed residence. Victim stated that a worker at her father's ranch grabbed the back of her dress. When she told him to let go of her, he continued to tighten his grip, knocking her to the ground. Smith said she screamed for help as the man towered over her. Another worker at the ranch, later identified as George Milton, came upon the attack and grabbed the larger man, pulling him away from Smith, the victim reported. Both men were last seen running toward Highway 17. Attacker was identified as Lennie Small (S). Police dogs were released to track the men, but neither was located.

I hereby attest that the following report is an accurate representation of witness accounts reported to me and my own personal observations of the offense/incident scene.
