C-STEM Teacher and Student Support Services, Inc.
www.cstem.org

JOB DESCRIPTION

Title: Computer Programing/Science Intern

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Some understanding of the software develop life cycle;
- Ensuring project, product, and services meets certain standards and satisfies requirements;
- Open source programming language skills to develop games, power Web applications, mobile applications, website update/management, mobile application update/management, and technology integration tools;
- Virtualization know-how;
- Safety, security, and data management;
- Other related duties as assigned.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Undergraduate student majoring in computer science or computer software engineering background preferred.

APPLY

- Email your resume and cover letter to support@cstem.org.

WORKING CONDITIONS

Working conditions are normal for an office environment.