

Dearest girlfriend Martha,

I never knew the meaning of true love till the day I met you and having you as my girlfriend is like a dream come true for me. I have thought to pen down the feelings that I have for you because I become a little weak when it comes to speak my feelings in front of you. I did not want to miss a chance to let you know that you are an angel of my life, my true lover, my best friend and my soul mate.

I just wish to tell you that I will love you till eternity. I adore you with the core of my heart and I make a promise to you that we will always stay this close. I am madly in love with your gentle smile, the spark in your eyes, the locks of your hair, your softest touch and essence of the bond that we share. With you in my life I feel to be the luckiest person on this earth. I cherish each and every moment spent with you.

Sweetheart, you really mean my world to me. I love you and I promise to be with you always.

Forever yours,

Jack
