

MLA Outline For Speech

1. Title

- Name of the Speech
- Your Name
- Course or Occasion
- Date

2. Introduction

- Attention Getter: Start with a quote, question, or startling statistic related to your topic.
- Purpose: Clearly state the purpose of your speech.
- Thesis Statement: Present your main argument or point succinctly.
- Preview: Briefly outline the main points you will discuss.

3. Body

- Main Point 1
 - Supporting Detail A (include evidence or a quote; cite in MLA format)
 - Supporting Detail B (additional evidence or elaboration)
- Main Point 2
 - Supporting Detail A
 - Supporting Detail B
- Main Point 3
 - Supporting Detail A
 - Supporting Detail B

4. Conclusion

- Summary: Recap the main points you've discussed.
- Restate Thesis: Emphasize how your points support your thesis.
- Closing Remark: End with a call to action or a memorable closing thought.

5. Works Cited

- List all sources cited during the speech in MLA format.

This outline structure will help keep your speech organized and ensure that all critical points and supporting details are covered effectively. Each main point should advance your argument and be clearly supported by evidence. Remember to adapt the level of detail in your outline to fit the length and depth of your speech.