

"Thankful" Turkey

Cut out the turkey and its feathers with scissors. Write what you are thankful for on the lines. Then color the feathers and attach them to the back of your turkey with glue or tape. Remember, we all need to be thankful for farmers! You may even want to send your turkey to a local farmer. Contact your county Farm Bureau to identify a local farmer.

Pattern adapted from Norbest Inc. home page