

Name _____ Date _____ R# _____

Article Summary Template

Title of Article: _____

Author: _____

Source: _____

Date of Article: _____

Part #1: Explanation

- Explain the topic/issue of the article by describing in detail the five W's below.

Who? _____

What? _____

When? _____

Where? _____

Why? _____

Part #2: Scientific Communication

- Describe the positive and negative outcomes that may occur based on the information in your article and provide reasoning.

- Looking at what we currently know or have, describe what scientists or people still need to discover, invent, or work on in order to make the world a safer and better place according to what you read in the article. Explain with reasoning.

- State your opinion and thoughts about the article and what you read.

Part #3: Connections

- How does this article and the information you read relate to your life?

- Refer to the environments logo and explain which environment(s) are affected and how they are impacted according to what you read in your article.

