Breakup Letter For Him

Dear James,

I hope this letter finds you well. Writing this is one of the hardest things I have ever had to do, but I believe it is necessary for both of us to move forward.

First and foremost, I want you to know that I cherish the moments we shared and the memories we created together. You have been an important part of my life, and I will always be grateful for the good times we had. However, I have come to realize that our relationship is no longer working the way it should, and it's time for us to go our separate ways.

This decision has not been made lightly. I have spent a lot of time reflecting on our relationship, and I believe that this is the best course of action for both of us. We have grown apart, and I think it's important for both of us to find happiness and fulfillment independently.

Please understand that this is not about blaming or pointing fingers. We both deserve to be in a relationship where we feel loved, supported, and understood. Unfortunately, I don't think we can provide that for each other anymore.

I hope that in time, we can both look back on our relationship with fondness and appreciate the lessons we've learned. I wish you nothing but the best in the future and hope that you find the happiness you deserve.

Take care of yourself.

Sincerely,

Sarah
