Territory Housing has a responsibility to ensure public housing is allocated appropriately to tenant need and household size. If your household structure indicates that you are no longer entitled to the public housing dwelling you reside in, Territory Housing may ask you to transfer to a dwelling that better suits your needs.

Part B – Income and asset details

5 Household income details

Please provide evidence of the gross weekly income (before tax) for all household members aged 18 years and over. Attach documents to confirm income received over the past three months as follows:

Wages: pay slips or a letter from your employer confirming gross (before tax) income.

Government pension, benefit or allowance (including Family Tax Benefit Part A): a statement no more than two weeks old, showing pension, benefit, allowance received from Centrelink, Veterans Affairs or other agencies.

If you are participating in the Centrelink Income Confirmation Service (ICS) your Centrelink payments will be confirmed electronically and you may not need to provide a Centrelink income statement.

Self-employed: provide previous financial year's tax notice of assessment from the Australian Taxation Office. If your business has been operating for less than 12 months, please discuss this with a housing officer.

Income from any other source (e.g. Workers Compensation): a letter, statement of other documentation that confirms both the source of income and the gross (before tax) amount.

Note: if you are claiming child maintenance payments as exempt income you will need to provide proof of your payments (such as pay slips, confirmation from the Child Support Agency, or Statutory Declarations from both parties).

Under section 36(a) of the Housing Act, you must notify Territory Housing of any changes to your income when they occur. The maximum penalty for an offence against this section is 100 penalty units.

6 Statement of assets

Normal household goods (furniture, white goods, TV etc.), personal items (clothing etc.) and one family vehicle are not counted as assessable assets. Assessable assets include high priced saleable items, financial investments and cash savings.

Please answer every question:

Do you or anyone living with you have any cash in the bank? ☐ Yes ☐ No

Do you or anyone living with you have superannuation funds that can be accessed? ☐ Yes ☐ No

Do you or anyone living with you have any stock market bonds, shares or investments? ☐ Yes ☐ No

Do you or anyone living with you own or part-own any real estate (e.g. land, house, unit, apartment, flat or commercial property) in Australia? ☐ Yes ☐ No

Does your household own more than one vehicle? ☐ Yes ☐ No

Does anyone living with you have any other assets of substantial value (e.g. caravan, motor home or boat)? ☐ Yes ☐ No

If you have answered yes to any of the questions above, please provide documentation that shows the value of these assets and any loans against them.

Part C – Declaration

7 Statement of Privacy
