
Speech Outline For Kids

Title: [Speech Title]

Example: "My Favorite Animal"

Introduction:

1. Greeting: Teach them to start with a polite greeting to the audience.
 - Example: "Good morning, everyone!"
2. Topic Introduction: Clearly state what the speech is about.
 - Example: "Today, I'm going to talk about why the giant panda is my favorite animal."

Body:

1. Main Point #1: Introduce the first key point.
 - Example: "Pandas are unique animals."
 - Detail: Explain what makes pandas unique.
 - Example: "Pandas have a special thumb that helps them hold bamboo."
2. Main Point #2: Discuss the second key point.
 - Example: "Pandas are important to the environment."
 - Detail: Describe how pandas impact their surroundings.
 - Example: "They help spread seeds which helps the forest grow."
3. Main Point #3: Cover the third key point.
 - Example: "Pandas are endangered."
 - Detail: Explain why it's important to protect them.
 - Example: "There are very few pandas left in the wild."

Conclusion:

1. Summary: Recap the main points briefly.
 - Example: "So, pandas are not only unique and important to the environment, but they also need our help."
2. Closing Message: End with a memorable closing line or call to action.
 - Example: "Let's all learn more about how we can help save the pandas!"
3. Thank You: Remind them to thank their audience.
 - Example: "Thank you for listening to my speech about pandas!"

Tips for Kids:

- Practice: Encourage them to practice their speech multiple times.
- Visual Aids: Use pictures or props to make the speech more interesting.
- Speak Slowly: Teach them to speak slowly and clearly to make sure everyone understands.