

Speech Outline For Wedding

Title: Toast to the Newlyweds

Introduction:

- 1. Greetings and Acknowledgements:
  - Begin by introducing yourself and your relationship to the couple.
  - Acknowledge important guests and family members, thanking them for coming.
- 2. Expression of Gratitude:
  - Thank the couple for the honor of being part of their special day.
  - Mention the beauty of the ceremony and the venue.

Body:

- 1. Storytelling:
  - Share a personal story or anecdote about your relationship with the bride, groom, or both. Choose a story that highlights their personalities or their relationship dynamics.
  - Make sure the story is appropriate, heartwarming, and adds personal insight or humor.
- 2. Qualities and Praise:
  - Speak about the qualities that make each individual special and what they bring to their relationship.
  - Examples could include anecdotes demonstrating the bride's kindness, the groom's loyalty, or their mutual passions and goals.
- 3. Relationship Highlights:
  - Reflect on the journey of the couple's relationship that you've witnessed.
  - Mention milestones or challenges they've overcome together, emphasizing their strength as a team.

Conclusion:

- 1. Well Wishes:
  - Offer your best wishes for their future, highlighting hopes for happiness, prosperity, and lasting love.
  - Include a quote or a piece of advice about marriage that resonates with the couple's relationship.
- 2. Toast:

- Invite all guests to raise a glass in honor of the couple's new journey.
- End with a heartfelt toast, such as "To love, laughter, and happily ever after!"