EXPERIENCE

University of Nevada, Las Vegas
February, 2005 –

Title: Dean of University Libraries

Responsibilities: Administer the four libraries that comprise the University Libraries at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas: Lied Library, Architecture Studies Library, Music Library, and Curriculum Materials Library. Direct 125 staff and manage $17 million budget.

Accomplishments: positioned libraries as educational partner within campus-wide undergraduate education reform; reorganized several library departments to achieve greater efficiencies; led the development of the Libraries Strategic Plan; created design family and publications program for libraries; expanded libraries Advisory Board of donors and raised millions of dollars, including the creation and endowment of the Undergraduate Peer Research Program and the Libraries Award for Undergraduate research; restructured and built Web and Digitization Services department and encouraged several grant funded digital projects; accepted in Greater Western Library Association (GWLA) as member; led re-visioning of technical services with library-wide focus on discovery; created structure for Web Management Committee; led the development of a user focus evaluation framework that focuses on impact of libraries on user; managed libraries efficiently through campus budget cuts and positioned libraries for comparatively minimal impact; initiated a $4 million renovation project to create more space for Special Collections, create an exhibit and event spaces, design a new Graduate Commons, upgrade public spaces and develop a master plan for signage, wayfinding, and digital displays. On campus, led the planning for several faculty events on undergraduate education reform: the General Education retreat; the capstone conversation; the Universal Learning Outcomes review, and the High Impact Educational Practices; created the Faculty Institute on Research Based Learning in High Impact Courses and subsequent faculty institutes to create peer to peer learning spaces for faculty to partner with librarians to design courses for the new general education curriculum; chaired dean's Committee on Education; member of Dean's Council and Academic Council & Cabinet; chaired Committee on the Culture of Teaching and Learning; participated in creation and served on Consortium for Faculty Professional Opportunities; served on Faculty Senate ad hoc committee on President's evaluation; chaired General Education Task Force.

Served on Regent's search committee for new President; chaired screening and recruitment committee for Executive Vice President and Provost; served on and then chaired a screening and recruitment committee for another Executive Vice President and Provost; member of President's strategic planning committee for Education; chaired NSHE Committee to document library efficiency; chaired State Council on Libraries and Literacy.

University of California, Berkeley
April 2002 – February, 2005

Title: Associate University Librarian (AUL) and Director of Doe/Moffitt Libraries, and Interim Director of Collections

Responsibilities: Participate in library-wide leadership and administration as part of the six-person senior management team for the UC Berkeley Library (21 libraries, 440 employees, 9.5 million volumes, and a $42 million budget). Manage the departments and 100 staff in the main and undergraduate libraries in the provision of reference, collection development, instruction, and access services. In April 2002, assumed responsibilities for the $21 million collections budget. In addition to servings as AUL and Director of the Main and Undergraduate Libraries, work with more than 80 selectors, library development, budget, and technical services staff, and the California Digital Library to manage all aspects of print and electronic collections in the UC Berkeley Library.

Accomplishments:

Restructured budget to create rolling three-year projections, balancing income against recurring expenditures and incorporating inflation projections; created a sustainable fund for centralized digital resources and worked with Collections Council to articulate policies and procedures for selectors; implemented a $700,000 budget reduction strategy in 2003/2004 and another $600,000 reduction for 2004/05; centralized funding for electronic journal packages; served on UC-wide Collection Development Committee which created a shared print archive for journals with electronic counterparts and served on task force that evaluated the archive; initiated various strategies to engage faculty on the crisis in scholarly communication and to support their role as change agents within scholarly publishing (e.g., symposium, website <http://www.lib.berkeley.edu/Collections/>)

University of California, Berkeley

January 2000 – April 2002

Title: Associate University Librarian and Director of Doe/Moffitt Libraries

Responsibilities: As AUL and Director of Doe/Moffitt Libraries, participate in library-wide leadership as part of the six-person senior management team for the UC Berkeley Library. Manage the departments and staff in the main and undergraduate libraries in the provision of reference, collection development, instruction, and access services.

Accomplishments:

Planned and led reorganization of the Doe and Moffitt Libraries, consolidating departments and service points; as part of the reorganization, led process that addressed service mission, philosophy, and space planning for a new Reference Center ($500,000) and an historic renovation of the Great Reading Room ($2.5 million). Refocused attention on the Undergraduate Library by: reviving reference services and collections; consolidating, moving, and supporting the inventory of the Undergraduate Collection; created a new position of Undergraduate Services and Collections Librarian; partnered with a new academic program to build a “New Media Commons” on the first floor of the Undergraduate Library; and drafted several case statements for development goals. Revitalized the UC Berkeley Library Exhibits Program; charged a task force to develop policy and procedures for a new Free Speech Movement Café Educational Program Series; chaired the Workgroup on Access to Collections which conducted availability studies and enhanced access to materials in remote shelving facility by creating: web based delivery of articles; a project to catalogue analyzed series; and online paging for materials.

In support of library collaboration with other campus initiatives, established formal liaisons and working groups between the Library and the Graduate Student Instructor Resource and Teaching Center, the Library and Educational Technology Services, and the Library and the Office of Undergraduate Research. Created a Library Prize for Undergraduate Research (<http://www.lib.berkeley.edu/researchprize/>) including a new exhibit space in the library to display undergraduate research projects.

Conceived the idea and drafted a proposal for a pilot project, funded by the Mellon Foundation ($138,000), to establish Mellon Library/Faculty Fellows for Undergraduate Research, as well as the subsequent four year $749,000 grant for the same project (<http://www.lib.berkeley.edu/Staff/MellonProject/>) . This initiative led to the creation of: the Council of Academic Partners (teaching and learning advisory group to the Vice-Provost for Undergraduate Education); a three week summer institute for faculty in large impact/large enrollment courses to restructure their course and syllabus to build in opportunities for undergraduate research and the use of library collections; course-centered cross unit Implementation Teams composed of academic support experts from the Library, Educational Technology Services, Student Learning Center, Office of Educational Technology, and GSI Teaching and Learning Resource Center.

Campus and UC Committees: University of California Office of the President (UCOP) Merced Advisory Group (space planning for new campus); UC Library Resource Sharing Group; UC Library Collection Development Committee; California Digital Library Database Transition Group; UC Berkeley Council of Academic Partners; UC Berkeley WASC Delivery of Education Working Group; Mellon Steering Committee, Chair; Annex Surge Planning Committee; and Core Group for the Seismic Retrofit and Programmatic Upgrade to the Doe Annex and Bancroft Library.

Florida International University Libraries, Miami, Florida

May 1991 – January, 2000.

Title: Head, Reference Department and Co-Director, Information Literacy Initiative

Responsibilities: Lead reference staff in the delivery of reference services, including: coverage of five service points; library instruction; collection management; and electronic information services. The Reference Department includes the Electronic Research Center, Microform Room, the Information Desk, the Curriculum Laboratory, and Interlibrary Loan.

As Co-Director of the Information Literacy Initiative, designed and provided a faculty development program in collaboration with the Director, Academy for the Art of Teaching.

Accomplishments:

Forged partnerships with academic programs across the curriculum to lead the evolution of the library instruction program from course related instruction, into a university-approved information literacy program with a sequence of classes linked to the core curriculum and required for all students.

Partnered with the Academy for the Art of Teaching to create the Information Literacy Initiative: a faculty development service that reached more than 400 faculty through workshops and consultation.

Through goal setting and improved resource management, quadrupled the number of classes taught by reference staff, reaching 10,489 students through 516 classes in one year with the same staffing level.

Directed the creation of an electronic research collection through evaluation and acquisition of electronic information services in cd rom, online, and web formats for local and statewide networks; negotiated pricing and licensing terms with vendors; developed faculty workshops series; chaired first committee that created FIU Libraries WWW presence; wrote and implemented collection development policy statement for print and electronic reference collections; drafted collection policy guidelines and procedures for INTERNET resources.

Worked with architects and engineers to design public and staff spaces for Reference, ILL, Periodicals, Microforms, computer clusters, and electronic classroom spaces for a $40 million, 220,000 sq. ft. library expansion project; developed strategies to relocate staff, services, and collections several times throughout three years of construction.

Initiated a restructuring of reference functions through the creation of tiered reference services and the implementation of an Information Desk and an Electronic Research Center.

Chaired library committee which led an organizational effort to shift emphasis from ownership to access by designing new models for electronic access and document delivery, including expedited document delivery, electronic ILL form, and patron-initiated ILL.

Supervised the creation of the "Everglades Information Network and Digital Library," including cooperative library services, collection development, and grant writing activities to develop a digital library for bibliographic and spatial data for everglades research.

Library Committees: Serials Collection Management; Web Oversight Committee; Instruction and Information Literacy Committee, Co-Chair; World Wide Web Committee, Chair; Promotion Procedures Committee, Co-Chair; Document Access Committee, Chair; Library Building Committee; Merit and Evaluation Process Review Committee; various Search and Screen Committees, Chair.

University Committees: Undergraduate Education in a Research University Task Force; Providers of Technology Training for Faculty; Teaching and Learning with Technology Showcase; Freshmen Experience Course Steering Committee; Faculty Senate Library Committee; College of Arts and Sciences, Technology Committee, Undergraduate Council; Search and Screen for College of Education Technology Specialist; Search and Screen for Director, Academy for the Art of Teaching; Campus Construction Committee; Parking Appeals; United Way.

Consortium Committees: State University System - Electronic Collections Committee, Chair; SEFLIN (Southeast Florida Library Information Network) Reference Committee, Chair for 1995/96; Energizing Conference Planning, Chair, 1995, 1998. State University System, Distance Learning Task Force; State University System, WebLUIIS Task Force.

University of Miami Library, Coral Gables, Florida

November, 1990 - May 1991.

Title: Acting Monographs Acquisition Librarian (6 month temporary position upon relocation to Miami)

Responsibilities: Directed the acquisitions of monographs, microforms, and non-serial materials for the University of Miami Library; monitored expenditures of library funds; established and maintained relationships with vendors; prepared and communicated account information to bibliographers and selectors; compiled references and prepared written evaluation of vendors bidding for monograph approval plan.

Yale University Library, New Haven, Connecticut

September 1989 - March 1990.

Title: Consultant to the University Librarian.

Responsibilities: Assist the University Librarian in the completion of administrative tasks.

Accomplishments: Researched and wrote a quinquennial report for the Yale University Library.

University of California at Berkeley Library, Berkeley, California

September 1988 - June 1989.

Title: Council on Library Resources (CLR) Management Intern.

Enhanced my experience in academic library administration through observation, discussion, and participation in all facets of the University Librarian's activities.

Activities: Accompanied the Director of Libraries and participated in all administrative areas including the budget process, grant writing and fund-raising, and facilities planning; managed projects in functional areas such as preservation, technical services, and collection development.

Accomplishments: Prepared a five year budget strategy to complete retrospective conversion and automate circulation in 23 branch libraries, including a cost analysis for the implementation of automated circulation with retrospective conversion costs and an analysis of circulation use patterns; served on the steering committee which designed and implemented a year-long planning process involving 600 staff in a redefinition of library services for the next decade; and worked with a task force to write a grant proposal for a state-of-the-art Instruction facility.

Yale University Library, New Haven, Connecticut

January 1984 - August 1989.

Title: Head, Access Services, Coordinator of Automated Reference Services, and Reference Librarian.
January 1984 - September 1988.

Responsibilities: Managed five public service units in the Reference Department: the Newspaper/Microform Collection; Periodical Reading Room; Interlibrary Loan Office; Dissertation Collection; and the Publication Office. Coordinated reference librarians in the provision of Automated Reference Services.

Provided full range of reference services including desk coverage, bibliographic instruction, collection development for reference materials and on-line bibliographic searches. As Access Services responsibilities evolved and increased, reference responsibilities were refined, and centered on participation in planning process.

Accomplishments: Developed Access Services and coordinated public service units within the Reference department; analyzed services, proposed and implemented alternative organizational configurations; reorganized workflow and wrote job descriptions for all positions; developed plan for staff development; proposed and implemented a reorganization of periodical processing; worked with architects and engineers to plan and design a new Microform Reading Room; initiated and implemented a preservation storage and collection management project for 19th and early 20th century newspapers; worked with Graduate School, Preservation Office, and Department of Manuscripts and Archives to develop new procedures for the processing, storage and service of Yale dissertations; conducted inventory of Publications Office.

Contributed to the redefinition of reference services in response to rapid changes in staffing patterns and shifts in organizational priorities: library instruction; physical reorganization of reference space and collection; a new program for automated reference services; a new publication program for reference; experimentation with various staffing levels and patterns at the Reference Desk. Wrote initial three year plan and budget for Automated Reference Services; prepared staff training materials and conducted workshops; worked with Instruction Coordinator to integrate online component into existing user education program; implemented proposal for CD-ROM products.

Chaired library task force which evaluated the existing classification and promotion system for librarians and designed a new model outlining performance expectations and including a peer review component.

Library Committees: Project Eli Task Force (instructional lab); Task Force on Performance Expectations and Related Policies for Librarians, Chair; Retrospective Conversion Task Force; Supervisors Group.
University Appointments: Fellow, Davenport College; Freshmen Academic Advisor.

Tufts University Library, Medford, Massachusetts.
November 1982 - January 1984.

Title: Reference/Interlibrary Loan Librarian.

Responsibilities: Provided reference services including on-line searching and bibliographic instruction. Participated in collection development and supervised library assistants in Interlibrary Loan and in Reference.

Accomplishments: Restructured interlibrary loan operations; contributed to planning for new reference area; integrated ready reference searching at reference desk, designed workshops and taught classes in research applications of online searching.
