Word of Life

“The Church always advances between the cross and the resurrection, between persecutions and the consolations of the Lord. This is the path: those who take this path do not go wrong.”

— Pope Francis, Homily on the Feast of St. George, April 23, 2013

August Saint of Mercy

Raymund Kolbe was ordained a Franciscan priest in 1918, taking the name Maximilian. After studying in Rome, Maximilian returned to Poland. During World War II, Father Kolbe hid as many as 2,000 Jewish people and Poles in his Polish monastery. In 1941, Maximilian was arrested by the Nazis, who sent him to Auschwitz. When several prisoners escaped, the commander picked 10 men to be starved as punishment. Franciszek Gajowniczek, a husband and father, was one of these. Fr. Kolbe offered his life in this man's place. When Kolbe outlived many of the men, he was killed by lethal injection. In 1982, Pope St. John Paul II canonized Maximilian Kolbe as a “martyr of charity.” Present at the ceremony was Gajowniczek, who had lived 54 years after St. Maximilian had taken his place in death.

Mission Appeal

Resurrection has been assigned the Catholic Relief Service's Global Fellows Program to support the missionary work of the Church. Through the program, clergy become engaged in our Gospel call to help our brothers and sisters overseas—and engage parishioners around the world. The mission appeal weekend is August 13th & 14th. Checks for the second collection should be made out to Resurrection Catholic Church.

EUCCHARIST: THE ULTIMATE COMMUNICATION OF DIVINE MERCY

BY FR. LEONARD CHUWA, AJ PHD

September 10th, 2016

9:00 a.m. till 3:00 p.m.

Cost $20 lunch included

Being the face of God's mercy Jesus communicates Himself fully in the mystery of the Eucharist. As Jesus' disciples, all Christians are called to be like Christ, to be mercy. The Eucharist is communion with Christ's mystical body and a covenant to be as merciful as our Heavenly Father is merciful. Both aspects of the Great Commandment of Love can only be understood from the perspective of Divine Mercy and empathy. How are we going to be students in Christ's school of mercy?
