What to look for...

Rewriting History

Lindsay McCabe already has more than a third of her 159 total blocks last season.

The redshirt senior's 54 blocks this season gives her 504 in her career making her third all-time at SU.

She is on pace to take second and needs to average just over seven blocks a game the rest of the way to take the crown at 654.

With 434 assisted blocks and currently sitting in second place, McCabe is just 25 BAs away from the SU title.

70 solos has her in seventh on the all-time list.

No No Noooo

In her first nine matches as part of the Orange, it is no mystery why Leah Levert was ranked in the top 80 senior volleyball athletes in last year's class.

With 43 blocks, Levert has done everything but sway her finger in the face of her opponents after she denies an attempted kill.

She has quickly captured the attention of the ACC, averaging 1.3 blocks per set thus far. The average places her seventh in the conference.

She is tied for the sixth best blocking performance in the country with 11 blocks in four sets against Illinois-Chicago.

I Am...Very Sneaky Sir

A trained hitter but a natural setter, Gosia Wlaszczuk has proven to be an efficient dualthreat in her new role as the team's setter.

As the brains of the offense, Wlaszczuk has hoisted her way to tenth on the ACC list for assists per set, averaging 6.80.

With that said Wlaszczuk attacks more than any other setter and has the most kills of anyone in the ACC at the position with 46.

Approaching Stardom

Just a junior, Silvi Uattara is nearing 1,000 kills with 916 in her career. The total is just 84 away from qualifying her for the SU top 10 career kills per set list.

Uattara is also just 263 kills away from entering the top 10 list for career kills.

She currently ranks sixth in the ACC for kills per set this season averaging 3.8. She also recorded 28 kills against Illinois-Chicago earlier this season.

The significance you ask?

It is tied for the seventh in the nation for most kills recorded in four sets.

ALBANY IN AMERICA EAST

- First in America East in blocks, averaging 2.32 per set.
- Second in the conference, holding opponents to a .193 hitting percentage.
- Second in digs with 16.08 per set.
- Viktoriia Stroilo is currently at the top of the digs list with 4.92 per set
- Tatum Jungsten is tied for second in blocks, averaging 1.00 per set
- Laini Leindecker is fourth in the conference in kills per set with 2.86

THE SCOUTING REPORT

Albany enters the weekend with a record of 2-7, with five-set victories over Boston College and UC Riverside. This season the Great Danes return six of their starters from 2013.

Last year's team leader in kills, Amanda Dolan, has just 66 this year. The amount ranks her third on the team and 40 less than sophomore Laini Leindecker who leads the squad with 106. Tatum Jungsten's team-leading 37 blocks is already more than half of the 57 she accumulated last year.

Leindecker recorded her fifth double-double of the season in her last game, recording 10 kills and 12 digs despite her team's 3-0 loss to Northern Arizona. The Great Danes face Syracuse on Saturday at 5 PM in the first game of the Otto Invitational. The two teams last met in 2007 with the Orange earning the win in three sets. Syracuse is 6-3 all-time against the Great Danes.

THE SCOUTING REPORT

Colgate enters the Otto Invitational at 3-4, having lost their last two matches against Denver and #11 Nebraska in three set matches. Earlier this season, Colgate beat Niagara, a team Syracuse beat 3-1, by a score of 3-2.

Senior Diane Seely leads the Raiders with 62 kills and 22.0 total blocks. Freshman Molly Smith is second on the team in assists, with 91 total, 49 of which have come in her last three matches.

Despite being one game under .500, Colgate still has four of their starters from their 22-9, 2013 team. The Raiders will face the Orange on Sunday at 12:30 PM. 'Cuse holds a 43-9-2 record all-time against Colgate, and currently rides a 21-game winning streak.

THE SCOUTING REPORT

Cornell begins the invitational coming off a victory against Bucknell that improved their record to 2-4. Three of the Big Red's losses came in the first weekend of the season as it fell to Seton Hall, UNLV and Rutgers. Connecticut bested Cornell last weekend.

Freshmen, Emily Wemhoff and Maddy Sroufe lead the team in kills with 67 and 66 respectively. The two make up for the loss of four Big Red starters from 2013. Natasha Rowland owns a team high 123 digs and is joined by Alyssa Phelps, who ranks fourth in the Ivy League with 9.14 assists per set.

The Big Red takes on Syracuse on Sunday at 6:30 PM in the last game of the Otto Invitational. Syracuse holds a 30-9-1 record against Cornell and has won five straight against the Big Red.

THIRD SEASON AT SYRACUSE

UZBEKISTAN GOVERNMENT INSTITUTE OF PHYSICAL CULTURE AND SPORT '70

SINCE ARRIVING IN 2012

BROUGHT 'CUSE VOLLEYBALL TO THE CARRIER DOME FOR HOME GAMES

RECORDED HIS 500TH VICTORY AGAINST PITTSBURGH (2013)

COACHED SU TO ITS FIRST VICTORY OVER A RANKED OPPONENT - #18 IOWA STATE (2012)

FINISHED T-5TH IN SU'S FIRST YEAR OF ACC AFTER BEING SELECTED 12TH IN THE PRESEASON POLL

LED THE ORANGE TO A WINNING CONFERENCE RECORD IN THEIR FIRST SEASON IN THE ACC (11-9)

A proven winner at all levels, Leonid Yelin is the sixth head coach in Syracuse University volleyball history, after taking over the program in 2012. Yelin led the University of Louisville to 14 NCAA Tournaments, including four NCAA Regional semifinals from 1996 through 2010.

The longtime Louisville head coach brought more 30 years of experience with him before his inaugural season in 2012, including international experience as both a player and a coach in Uzbekistan.

Yelin successfully transitioned SU through its first season in the Atlantic Coast Conference, posting a 16-16 overall record, including 11-9 in the ACC. The Orange finished tied for fifth in the league after being picked to be 12th in the preseason. In the process, Yelin picked up his 500th career win, becoming the 32nd active coach to reach that milestone. Outside hitter Sllvi Uattara became Yelin's first player to earn All-ACC, while also being recognized as an All-Region Honorable Mention.

In his first year with Syracuse Yelin recorded 12 wins, which included a triumph over No. 18 Iowa State for the program's first-ever win against a nationally ranked team. He ended the season with a .748 career winning percentage, putting him 17th among all-time Division I coaches.

Prior to SU, Yelin built the Louisville program into a perennial national power in his 15 seasons, posting a record of 366-112. He had 11 seasons with 20 or more wins and two seasons with 30 or more victories. In 2004, he earned the AVCA All-Midwest Region Coach of the Year award and was also recognized as the Conference USA Coach of the Decade the same year. Yelin mentored seven All-Americans, including six who played for their national teams and 12 student-athletes who played professionally.

Yelin began his intercollegiate coaching career at Barry University in 1991. He led the Buccaneers to the 1995 Division II National Championship en route to earning NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year honors. In 1994, Yelin was named the AVCA Division II South Region Coach of the Year after taking Barry to its first NCAA tournament, where the Buccaneers advanced to the Elite Eight.

Before his NCAA coaching experience, Yelin was a successful player and coach in Uzbekistan. He played for the Republic of Uzbekistan men's team from 1970-75 and then started his coaching career as the head coach for the Uzbekistan junior (U-18) team. Yelin was named the head coach of the national Uzbekistan women's team in 1977, leading that team to the 1977 and 1981 U-18 national championships and the 1978 USSR Women's World Cup title. He was the head coach of the Ukraine women's professional team from 1983-87. Yelin was the head coach of the 1988 and 1989 Uzbekistan men's national championship professional teams.

Born in Tashkent, Uzbekistan, Yelin earned his equivalent of a master's diploma in physical education and sport training from the Uzbekistan Government Institute of Physical Culture and Sport. His wife, Yelena, was a member of the Republic of Uzbekistan's Women's National Team from 1973-86 and was a member of the USSR Olympic team from 1975-78, during which she was a two-time European Champion. The couple has two grown children, Eleonora and Boris.

ASSISTANT COACH LANA DUKULE

SECOND SEASON AT SYRACUSE // LOUISVILLE '08

The former University of Louisville volleyball standout Lana Dukule begins her second season as assistant coach of the Syracuse Orange.

"This will be a smooth transition for everyone," said Yelin. "For me, she's replacing a former teammate, so I don't have to make any adjustments since she played for me. She brings in experience, not just as a collegiate player, but she also played professionally overseas. A lot of players have a dream to play after college, and she will be a good example of you can do it too. She is a great role model."

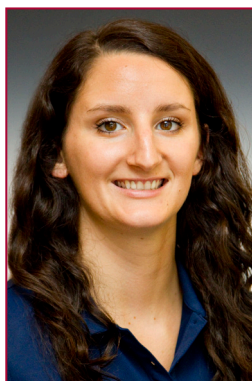

A four-year letterwinner for Yelin when he coached the Cardinals, Dukule was a member of Louisville's NCAA Tournament teams from 2004 to 2006, which included consecutive Sweet 16 appearances in her first two years and Conference USA All-Freshman First Team recognition.

Dukule enjoyed a phenomenal senior campaign, garnering All-BIG EAST First Team and All-BIG EAST Tournament honors. She ranked first on the team with a .342 hitting percentage and 36 solo blocks, second with 350 kills and third with 102 total blocks. That season, Louisville led the country in blocks per game at 3.94.

"Coach Yelin is a great mentor," said Dukule. "I played for him at Louisville and I always dreamed of working with him. I am very excited and can't wait to start."

Upon receiving her B.S. in business administration and finance, Dukule began her career as a professional volleyball player with the Volta Mantovana Volleyball Club in Italy. She spent the next two years in France playing one season each for the EVB Volleyball Club and IOPV Volleyball Club.

During the summer of 2012, Dukule was a non-playing member of the Latvian National Team at the Latvian Olympics.

ASSISTANT COACH ERIN LITTLE

SECOND SEASON AT SYRACUSE // SYRACUSE '12

Erin Little now enters her second season coaching the Orange after enjoying a four-year playing career at Syracuse and a one-year stint professionally overseas.

Little was as a member of the Orange squad from 2008-11, when the team compiled an overall record of 80-47, including a pair of 20-win seasons and three trips to the BIG EAST Tournament. While at SU, Little was a solid student-athlete, earning honors both on and off the court. During her senior season, the outside hitter was named to the BIG EAST Honor Roll for the week of Oct. 24 after helping the Orange to a perfect 3-0 week, while totaling 35 kills, 13 digs and eight blocks.

Equally impressive, Little is the most recent SU volleyball player to be recognized on the BIG EAST All-Academic Team five times. Additionally, Little's academic achievements placed her on the Syracuse Athletic Director's Honor Roll a total of nine times.

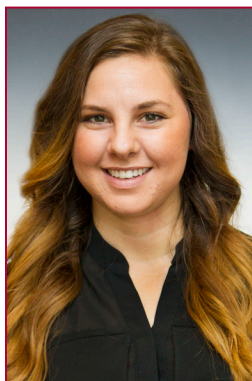

Following an undergraduate B.S. advertising degree in the spring of 2012, Little traveled overseas to play professionally in Finland with the club Orpo. Little starred as an outside hitter and helped her team win the Finnish bronze medal. Since arriving back in the U.S., she has spent time coaching with the Iroquois-Empire Volleyball Association High Performance program, a part of USA Volleyball's "Olympic Pipeline."
