

1. NAME

[Consider distinguishing your name by font type or size.]

Address

City, State, Zip Code

Phone number [Choose your best contact number.]

E-mail address [Make sure that your e-mail address is professional.]

2. EDUCATION

Degree, Year

[Full degree name. No abbreviations. If you have not yet graduated, you can put “Anticipated” before the year.]

Institution Name, City, State

[Only include GPA if you have a 3.5 or above. Include years on the Dean’s list. If more than one degree, list the highest degree first. If you do not have any work experience, consider listing course work completed. Do not include high school unless it is distinguished or an art school. Fashion designers: include mentors in this section.]

3. PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Job Title [Consider making this bold.]

Dates of Employment

Company [Consider underlining to distinguish.] City, State

- [Put dates in chronological order and to the right side margin of the page.]
- [Use Bullet points to list your duties for organization.]
- [List duties with Action Words, be specific and measurable; highlight accomplishments and achievements.]
- [List at least three accomplishments or duties.]
- [You may or may not use periods after your duties. It is most important to be consistent in your formatting/style.]

4. EXPERIENTIAL EDUCATION

Course Name/Project Title

Dates of Coursework

Institution Name [Consider Underlining to distinguish] City, State

[Often, undergraduate students do not have professional experience. Adding a section about relevant coursework/projects during school is an important category to show skills, abilities, and experience to employers.]
