PERSONAL SUMMARY

An approachable and committed Dance Teacher who is keen to share her passion for dance with those that she teaches. Maxine is able to run a stimulating, challenging and varied extra-curricular dance programme across any school where she teaches. She can create a classroom atmosphere where visitors are welcome and peer observation is the norm. On a personal level she is a fit and able individual who can perform physical activities where considerable use of arms and legs is required and where she will have to move her entire body over a long period of time. Right now she would like to join a school that is dedicated to the development and career progression of its staff.
