

Daily Agenda - Day 2

Tuesday April 5, 2011 - for the warning user community

Location: Bechtel Boardroom, Rm 630, Sutardja Dai Hall

- |            |                                                                                                                                          |
|------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:30 a.m.  | Continental breakfast                                                                                                                    |
| 9:00 a.m.  | Welcome, introduction, purpose of meeting                                                                                                |
| 9:30 a.m.  | The March 11, M9 Tohoku earthquake: What happenedHiroo Kanamori (Caltech)                                                            |
| 10:15 a.m. | Current status of early warning in the USTom Heaton (Caltech)                                                                        |
| 11:00 a.m. | How industry, government, and the public could use warning in theUS, and what is needed to deliver itRichard Allen (UC Berkeley) |
| 11:30 a.m. | Open discussion                                                                                                                          |
| Noon       | Working Lunch                                                                                                                            |
| 1:30 p.m.  | Adjourn                                                                                                                                  |