

Nerve Media Student Leadership - Job Profile

Section Editor - Fashion

Job Description

The fashion editor is responsible for all fashion content in the magazine for each issue and coordinating the design of the fashion section.

Key Responsibilities

- Regular meetings with editor to agree content and deadlines for copy, design and pictures.
- Ensuring that these deadlines are fed back to contributors and designers.
- Ensuring the editor is provided with content and designs in advance of final deadlines for checking, and again by deadline for inclusion in final print copy.
- Work with the editor on commissioning appropriate illustrations.
- Develop content for the website and liaise with the Head of Online on this.
- Organising coverage of major fashion events throughout the year.
- An eye for fashion and the ability to include relevant content throughout the 2014/15 year.

Interested?

Please e-mail editor@nervemedia.org.uk with a 200 word statement as to why you have applied for the role and what you would bring to Nerve Magazine. You may also enclose examples of previous work as PDF or Word Documents to support your application.

Closing date: 11th May 2014