

JOB DESCRIPTION

Position: AV System Programmer

Division: IT

Reports to: Chief Technical Officer

MAIN DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

AV System Programmer

Working as part of our IT team the main responsibility of the AV System Programmer will be to write software for our clients' control system solutions.

Your duties will include

- Writing Crestron, AMX and Extron Control system programs and commissioning.
- Configuring simple control systems on site.
- Assist Engineers with all aspects of testing the systems and software.
- Maintain an orderly filing system for all programs in line with Document Control procedures.
- Attend training course relevant to increasing knowledge and experience of Control System programming and the Audio Visual industry in General.

Skills required:

- A desire to learn Audio Visual Control systems and Programming.
- An excellent knowledge of programming and programming methods.
- An interest in Audio Visual systems and technology.
- Experience in Creston or AMX programming; although not essential.