This Agreement is between Silovision Media (hereafter “videographer”) and _____ (hereafter “artist and company”), who is being serviced as a client of Silovision Media’s.

1. Services: Silovision Media shall perform services as a videographer in connection with the video production produced, arranged or which the videographer engaged during the term which are set forth in the rollout section. Only services listed in the “rollout section” are governed by this contract agreement.

2. Term: This agreement shall be in full force and effort from the date above until services are rendered and final project is delivered to the customer

3. Fee: Fee of this project is non-negotiable. To have received this contract agreement, customer had to previously make a non-refundable deposit to secure his or her's date of service. Remainder balance of this project must be paid within 24 hrs of the service date (Cash or PayPal payments only). No payments will be taken on the set of the video for precaution reasons.

4. Scheduling: The above scheduled timing of this project will be strictly enforced. A fee of $50 per 30 minute increment will be charged to the customer if time of arrival is later than the agreed start time. No exceptions will be allowed. If late arrival to the set causes conflict with the following locations, the artist agrees to pay late fees to following venues if they are pay-for-time agreed venue. Silovision asks that all people needed for each scene stay on set until scene is completed to ensure completion.

5. Communication: Silovision Media requests to only keep contact with one person only which shall be the management of the artist or the contract signer only. This is to keep communication confusion to a minimum. All communication is asked to be either verbal or via email. Silovision Media asks for a 24 hour response dedication to answer all questions and concerns.

6. Video Approval: Silovision Media will complete the final project and deliver to the client for reviewing purposes before official release. Average turnaround time for a project is 1-2 weeks as we aim to over deliver each time. Only (2) revisions will be allowed per customer on a single project. No person(s) except for Silovision Media is allowed to alter any portion of the Video Production. Any unlawful use of Silovision Media's production will be requested for immediate removal before further actions.

7. Delivery of Product: Silovision Media will deliver the final project via wetransfer.com We will only deliver this project to one working email and not responsible if the project is not downloaded in the time period allotted by wetransfer.com before they erase the files. Other arrangements can be arranged per request. DVD copies of final projects are purchasable for additional cost of $10 per DVD including postage delivery cost. Silovision Media keeps all final projects on file for (30) days only. Within that time period, additional DVD copies can be ordered.

8. Media Placement: Silovision Media is not required to place any final projects on its social media sites nor website. To have a placement of your project via our websites, a request for approval must be submitted to our Social Media Department for legal purposes. Silovision Media is also not responsible for uploading the final project to the customer's social media networks. If for any reason the final project is removed due to copyright regulations governed by any website, Silovision Media will not be held accountable for these actions or consequences to follow.

If the contracted project is placed on any social media sites, websites or promotional DVD's, then Silovision Media demands to be listed for their credits as Director & Editor with website information.

9. Cancellation: Silovision Media asks for a 48 hour verbal notice before cancellation. Above Signee automatically forfeits his or her's deposit once a cancellation is requested. Silovision Media is not required to reschedule an alternate date different from the original date.
