

Privacy Policy Statement

The Lambton Kent District School Board respects the privacy of its web users and treats the information provided to the Board for specific business or education purposes in a confidential matter. The Board is committed to maintaining the accuracy, confidentiality, and security of any personal information that is under its control.