CONFERENCE AND TEAM BUILDING QUOTATION

This beautiful game farm venue is 40 km from Sun City, 25 km from Boshoek and 50 km from Rustenburg, with a view of where the Magaliesberg mountains end and the Pilanesberg mountains begin.

It is with pleasure that I present this quotation for conferencing and or team building to you:

You have three venue options to choose from for conferencing:
1. Thabile Venue (place of happiness):
	• Seats 120 school room style
	• Seats 150 banquet style
	• Seats 200 cinema style
2. Bush Palace at the waterfall:
	• Seats 15 school room style
	• Seats 20 cinema style
3. Naledi (next to the boma and also the recreation venue):
*	Seats 30 school room style
*	Seats 40 cinema style
*	Seats 50 Banquet style

The team building facilitating takes place at the waterfall and or in the fairy bush under large trees on one side and at the other side opposite the water stream, is extra ordinary shaped rocky cliffs.

The rates for only conferencing and only team building are the same. For conferencing and team building combined as one event, the rates of Makinky Manzi stays the same as for one event. When you take the package for conferencing and team building combined or team building only, you only pay extra for the team building facilitator's package.

Please see my team building options at the bottom of the quotations and information.

SupermanLife has the following options available:

- The Executive Team Coaching is our flagship team coaching event where we hold nothing back. On this fully loaded one day event, we will take you through our Shaping Your Destiny Coaching Program, which will end with our signature firewalk.
- Our Platinum Team Coaching offers you exceptional value. It contains all the features of the Executive, except for the firewalk, at a very competitive price. The Platinum team coaching remains very popular, and is a favourite among private and corporate clients alike. This is where we teach you all about Personal Power.
- Our Gold Team Coaching is all about rediscovering and clarifying your team's purpose, vision and values. It is a fun and focused event which will really pull your team together. No matter how good your team is, we'll make them better. The focus for this coaching programme is about goal setting.
- The Silver Team Coaching is an exciting and vibrant morning that's all about breaking through mental barriers and limiting beliefs to finding and living your presence.
- The Fire Team Coaching Program is a transformational evening which will be a true breakthrough experience for you as a team, as well as an individual. The highlight of the evening is our signature firewalk, where we learn you to break through your limiting beliefs.
- Firewalk Team Coaching - We have performed fire walk seminars at various venues including event hosting and conferencing facilities (e.g. Emperors Palace), hotels, restaurants, sports clubs, office complexes and even private homes. Fire walking is mostly portable and can be conducted virtually anywhere.
