INFORMATION REGARDING LEGACIES

WHO IS A LEGACY?

A legacy to Alpha Chi Omega is a sister, daughter, granddaughter or great-granddaughter of a member. The Alpha Chi Omega member and her family member define their legacy relationship (i.e. step relations, blended families, etc.). Alpha Chi Omega values the relationship between a legacy and an alumna member. Chapters are regularly educated regarding the national legacy policy. Additionally, alumna members are encouraged to prepare legacies to meet the standards of membership set forth by the national organization and local chapter.

LEGACY POLICIES

An undergraduate legacy who meets membership standards and eligibility requirements is considered a preferred candidate and:

- Is invited to the first invitational round of events during the formal recruitment process
- Is invited to at least one recruitment event in an informal or continuous recruitment process
