

Personal Property Release of Liability Form

On this _____ day of _____, 2013, intending to be legally bound hereby, the undersigned agrees and does hereby release from liability and to indemnify and hold harmless

_____ (insert community name), its managing agent, owner, and any of their employees, officers, directors (both past and present), agents, heirs, successors, assigns, subsidiaries, attorneys, affiliates and personal representatives (collectively the "Released Parties") from any and all liability for losses and/or damages to personal property occasioned by, or in connection with any activity or action of removal of the undersigned's personal property from the below described premises (the "Premises").

Due to the Released Parties' need to immediately enter the Premises to initiate emergency repairs to the Premises affected by the flooding on or around September 12, 2013, the undersigned grants the Released Parties permission to immediately enter the Premises and remove and dispose of any and/or all of the undersigned's personal property in any manner chosen by Released Parties. The undersigned does hereby surrender, relinquish, and release unto the Released Parties all of his/her rights, title and interest in and to the undersigned's personal property remaining in the Premises. The undersigned acknowledges and grants permission to the Released Parties to dispose of all such personal property.
