

---

Research Paper Format

Title Page

- Title: Concise and informative, clearly indicating the research topic.
- Author's Name: Include full names without titles.
- Institutional Affiliation: The name of the school or organization where the research was conducted.
- Course Name: If applicable.
- Instructor's Name: If applicable.
- Submission Date: The date the paper is submitted.

Abstract

- A brief summary of the research paper, including the purpose of the research, methodology, results, and conclusions. Typically, an abstract should not exceed 250 words.

Table of Contents

- List of sections, including page numbers. This helps readers navigate the document easily.

Introduction

- Introduces the topic, provides background information, and presents the research question or thesis statement. It sets the stage for the entire study.

Literature Review

- A survey of existing research relevant to the topic. This section demonstrates the researcher's knowledge of the field and how their work fits into the larger academic conversation.

Methodology

- Details the research methods used to gather data. This includes the research design, population/sample, data collection techniques, and data analysis strategies.

Results

- Presents the findings of the study without interpretation. This section includes data in the form of text, tables, and figures.

Discussion

- Interprets the results, explaining how they answer the research question or support the thesis. Discusses the implications of the findings and any limitations of the study.

Conclusion

- Summarizes the main findings and their implications. Suggests areas for future research.

References/Bibliography

- A list of all sources cited in the paper. The format for references varies by citation style (APA, MLA, Chicago, etc.).