

Sample Teacher Appreciation Week Letters

Sample Letter #1

Hello Parents,

The end of the school year is almost here and it is time to show Strawbridge Elementary teachers and staff how we appreciate them! May is Teacher Appreciation Week. There are many ways to show teachers how much we value them but it is up to you to decide how to do that. A suggestion could be to have each child bring in a store bought token for their teacher every day of the week these should be very low or no cost. The possibilities are endless...

Monday – Flowers (such as flowers picked from your yard) I will have a vase ready for the kids to put them in as they come into the classroom. This way the teacher gets a small bouquet of mixed flowers.

Tuesday – Have the children draw a picture of their teacher or write a poem.

Wednesday – One piece of fruit such as a banana, apple, orange, etc. I will have a basket ready for the kids to put them in as they come into the classroom.

Thursday – One piece of individual wrapped candy, teachers favorite. Again, I will have a basket ready for the kids to drop them in as they come into the classroom.

Friday – Homemade cards/notes. Have your child express how they feel about their teachers by having them make their own thank you cards/notes/pictures.

We will also be having a breakfast on Wednesday, May 6th (example date and timeframe, please update). Each grade will be responsible to bring something in. Additional information will be coming out about this.

Just a reminder, this is all voluntary. You can show your appreciation any way you feel is appropriate. This is just one fun way to get your child involved in thanking their teacher/s for all they do. The children have fun participating and the teachers love kind gestures!

Thank you!

Sample Letter #2

Hello Parents,

Here is an opportunity to spoil Mrs. W and Mrs. D for a week and let them know how thankful we are for all they have invested in our children this year. We hope you and your child have fun this week! Remember the ideas listed below are just that ... ideas!! Please feel free to be as creative as you want! Don't forget about Mrs. S and the other specialist teachers as you plan i.e. art, music, PE etc)

Monday – Fruit we will make a fruit basket. Have your child wear Mrs. W favorite color RED today!

Tuesday – We will bring lunch to the teachers. Have your child wear Mrs. D's favorite color PURPLE!

Wednesday – The school will be hosting a yummy breakfast for the teachers we will be responsible for providing items. More info to come on that!

Thursday - Have your child bring one of the teachers favorite snack items. (See the list below)

Friday – Gift card day! We are suggesting today to be gift card day. Please consider picking up a gift card at one of their favorite stores. (See the list below)

 Room Parent: You can write down the teachers likes, dislikes, favorite stores etc from the list you will be provided!
