

MONOLOGUE CHARACTER ANALYSIS

Answer all questions as thoroughly as possible. Much of what you decide will not be in the script. Use your creative imagination and then commit to your choices so your character is three dimensional and not just an extension of you.

NAME OF PLAY: _____

AUTHOR: _____

CHARACTER: _____

1. What is the main idea of the monologue?
2. What is the mood?
3. To whom is the monologue directed/spoken?
4. What is the character's objective?
5. How old is the character?
6. What is the character's social status/occupation?
7. In what type of environment does your character live?
8. How does your character dress?
9. List three character traits that best describe his/her personality?
10. What happened immediately before your monologue begins?
11. Name one event in your character's life that intensely affected the things your character is saying in this monologue.