To the officers and members of the Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church. I greet you in the name of the once crucified and risen Savior, Jesus Christ. I pray that your life in Him is sure, and that your joy is complete. This is the time of year when we pause to acknowledge and thank God for His abundant grace and mercy towards us. Each annual celebration provides us with the opportunity to reflect upon our failures and accomplishments within the context of God's expectations for accomplishing Kingdom business.

I want to thank every church leader for their earnest commitment to serve God through this congregation. In kind, I would like to thank every member of the congregation for accepting the labor and ministry of the leadership God has provided. A congregation is similar to a family. I strongly believe God designed us this way in order to teach us patience, love, forgiveness; and to provide us with support systems to enhance our effectiveness.

The Lord in His wisdom called several members of our congregation from labor to reward since we last celebrated our Church Anniversary. Their presence is felt in so many areas of the congregation. We cannot deny that "Competent" servants were amongst us, and their assignments are difficult to replace.

I am praying that the Lord will continue to rise up servant leaders who will be committed to providing competent service to the Lord's church. For now, we celebrate and remind ourselves that everything we do is for the Lord's Glory and our good. Let us continue to establish and maintain a competent church for our Lord.

In His Service,

Robert L. Manaway, Sr.

TABRENALE MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH HISTORY 1950 TO 2016

The year 1950 A.D. and the month of August, The Reverend H.K. Griffin, Jr. of Shreveport, Louisiana had been invited by the Ushers of the Progressive Baptist Church to conduct a revival. At the close of the revival, the Minister in charge of the Mt. Baker Community Church invited Reverend Griffin to conduct a three-week service for them. During the services some of the persons that knew Reverend Griffin from Louisiana asked him to stay and organize a church. At the end of these services eighty-six persons had united with the group.

The Reverend H.K. Griffin accepted the pastorate, and on September 12, 1950, the Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church was organized under his leadership with a deacon board, church school, and the following auxiliaries, Mission Society, Choir, Pastor's Aid, Prayer Band, and Usher Board. This small group joined hands with the pastor and had willing minds to work.

The present building was purchased at a cost of $28k, and was converted into a place of worship. The necessary furnishings were purchased at an approximate cost of $11k. The membership had grown to 600.

On April 22, 1958 the Church Mortgage was paid in full. On December 21, 1960 the property at 2608 S. King Street was purchased at $10.5k. On April 18, 1964, Pastor Griffin resigned after thirteen and a half years of service.

The Reverend Alex Watson, a young Minister of the church, was asked to assist the pulpit services. The crisis in which we found ourselves without a leader bound us closer together, and because of this we were able to witness joy and unity that we had not had for sometime. Brother Cecil Lewis, chairman of the deacon board, called upon the members to hold fast to their faith. A business meeting was called, and pulpit committee was formed. The pulpit committee presented several wonderful speakers who inspired our hearts.

In July 1964 The Reverend B.A. Taylor preached at the 11:00 a.m. service and through the following week. During the week he was interviewed by the pulpit committee, and upon recommendation of the committee and other recommendations that were received with him, the committee extended the call to Reverend Taylor on August 8, 1964. On August 13, 1964 Reverend Taylor accepted the call, and returned to West Virginia to resign his pastorate of the Mt. Chapel Baptist Church. On October 26, 1964 he returned to Tabernacle to take up the task of leadership. Reverend B.A. Taylor served Tabernacle for nine years.

TABRENALE MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH HISTORY 1950 TO 2016

When Pastor Taylor came to us we had a mortgage loan of more than $5K with the Washington Baptist Convention, and other indebtedness of more than $2K of which was paid in full by early 1966.

Pastor Taylor came with a vision to build a new sanctuary, but because of the limited resources on hand we made plans to renovate the present building at an estimated cost of $80k. We held a Capital Fund Campaign to help raise the funding for the renovation project. The Reverend Robert B. Mould of the American Baptist Home Mission Society conducted our campaign beginning January 1, 1966 and closed on January 15, 1966; with $4k in pledges over our estimated goal. The deacons and trustees held council with the Architect and at this time we changed our plans from renovation to building a new sanctuary and renovating the present building for educational facilities. This was the recommendation to the church. The church voted unanimously to accept the plan.

In order to fulfill our plans we purchased the property on the south side of the building for $5k and the property on the east side of the building at a cost of $6k. Then came the time for getting the bids. The Prime Construction Company offered the lowest bid, which exceeded our estimated goal of $50k. However with the guidance and cooperation of our architect, Mr. Leon Bridges and Mr. Larry Johnson, our dreams were fast becoming a reality. We broke ground on November 6, 1966.

On June 4, 1967 The Prince Hall Grand Lodge laid the corner stone for our new sanctuary. On September 3, 1967 as we march into our new sanctuary our hearts shall sing "Happy Zion What A Happy Lot is Thine!"

Reverend Melvin Darden of San Diego California was called to pastor Tabernacle in February of 1973. Pastor Darden served until February of 1977. Revered Clarence E. Henderson served for five years before leaving the church in 1982. In July of 1983 reverend Robert Lee Manaway Sr. of Hattiesburg, Mississippi was extended the invitation to become Pastor. He accepted the call and began his pastoral duties on the first Sunday of September in 1983.

For the past thirty-three years Pastor Manaway has guided the church through good and difficult times. His focus has always been to develop church leaders who could competently serve the congregation. Under his leadership the church has experienced many physical and spiritual changes. The chronicles of the churches accomplishments are still being written.

Pastor Dana McClendon was born March 1, 1967 to the union of Rev. Walter McClendon and Mrs. Jeannette McClendon in Los Angeles, California. Pastor McClendon confessed Christ at the age of twelve. He was baptized at Bethel Missionary Baptist Church in Pasadena, California. He accepted his call to the ministry at the age of eighteen and preached his first message at Chapel Grove Baptist Church on December 29, 1985, entitled "After Salvation, Then What?" Pastor McClendon began his education in California. After graduation from Pasadena High School in 1985, he pursued a career in the U. S. Navy. He majored in Mess Management and supervised the preparation of food aboard a personnel carrier of five thousand officers and enlisted personnel.

He also served as Ward Attendant for seven hundred Navy Officers. Before receiving an Honorable Discharge in September 1989, Pastor McClendon had traveled the world to Thailand, Singapore, Hong Kong and Hawaii. While in the Navy Pastor McClendon was stationed in Bremerton, Washington, which led him to Seattle in the spring of 1987.

He immediately started searching for a church home. Pastor McClendon comfortably settled into Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church under the spiritual leadership of Dr. Robert L. Manaway. He swiftly grew and became instructor of New Converts and Christian Character classes; assisted in Ordinances of the Church; gave spiritual counseling as needed, and became Pastoral Assistant to Rev. Manaway. He performed all duties as the Minister in the absence of Pastor Manaway. Pastor McClendon continues his education by attending classes, conferences and seminars.

In November 1991, Pastor McClendon became an Ordained Minister under Pastor Manaway. While Pastor McClendon was busy preaching the gospel at Tabernacle, Greater New Bethel was busy seeking a spirit-filled Gospel preacher to lead them. In June 1996, Greater New Bethel prayed together on one accord for a Pastor and the Lord laid it upon their hearts to petition Pastor McClendon. He gladly accepted the proposal. On December 1, 1996, Pastor McClendon became the Pastor of Greater New Bethel Missionary Baptist Church. Greater New Bethel has since become a more spirit-filled church growing tremendously in love, spiritual development and numbers. Pastor McClendon's sanctified vision and objective is to strive to have a "BIBLE REGULATED, CHRIST CENTERED, AND PRAYER MINDED CHURCH."

Reverend Dr. Samuel Berry McKinney served as pastor of Seattle's Mount Zion Baptist Church from 1958 until his retirement in 1998, providing the longest continuous pastorship in the history of the church. The recipient of numerous awards and honorary degrees, Dr. McKinney has been recognized locally and nationally for his work as a civil rights leader and minister. He has done much to shape the conscience of Seattle and Washington State.

Rev. McKinney was born in Flint, Michigan, on December 28, 1926, to Reverend Wade Hampton McKinney and Ruth Berry McKinney. He grew up listening to his father preach, watching him fight discrimination in the Midwestern city, and hearing national leaders such as Thurgood Marshall, Walter White, and A. Philip Randolph speak at his father's church. He graduated from Morehouse College and earned a Doctor of Ministry degree from Colgate

Rochester/Bexley Hall/Crozier Theological Seminaries of Rochester, New York.

Like his father, he understood that ministry and the implementation of social justice incorporates all components of community. He helped found Liberty Bank, the Mount Zion Baptist Church Credit Union and was on the Board of Trustees of Washington Mutual Bank. He brought his college friend, the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., for his only visit to Seattle in 1961. Under Dr. McKinney's visionary leadership, the congregation built a new sanctuary, educational unit and fellowship hall. His book, Church Administration in the Black Perspective, teaches the responsible management of the Black church; it has gone through many printings. Over the last six decades, Rev. McKinney has been a mature voice of reason on issues of human rights and economic empowerment.

It has been Dr. McKinney's good fortune to travel extensively. He has toured the Holy Land, the Middle East, Russia, East and West Africa, the Caribbean, South America, Europe, and the Orient. In 1990, his travels took him to South Africa, along with twenty-one other clergymen. There they were blessed to meet, preach and dialogue with South African clergy, anti-apartheid leaders and President Mr. Nelson Mandela.

Since his retirement, Dr. McKinney has been involved in a number of activities. He continues to preach and teach locally and nationally and for ten years starred in Langston Hughes' Black Nativity at the Intiman Theater.

Rev. McKinney was married to the late Louise Jones McKinney for over 59 years. They had two daughters: Dr. Lara-Ellen McKinney and Mrs. Rhoda McKinney Jones; and a grandson, Kent McKinney Jones.
