Your Invoice for Tuition and Fees

1. Payment should be mailed to the Wabash College Business Office at this address. (envelope enclosed)
2. Reflects date invoice was printed. Payments received on this date or after will be reflected on your next invoice.
3. Due Date: Payment is due by this date in order to maintain enrollment and move into college housing.
4. Balance Due: This balance equals total charges less total credits less payment plan expected less pending financial aid less Wabash Student Employment credit. If you choose not to use the "PENDING FINANCIAL AID", pay the "BALANCE BEFORE PENDING AID".
5. This is the balance forward from the last Invoice for Tuition and Fees. (FRESHMEN: this is your admission deposit).
6. Charges: includes tuition, fees, room & board.
7. Payments/Credits: includes payments we have received; posted financial aid; payment plan payments received; Wabash Student Employment payroll deductions applied.
8. Pending Financial Aid is Financial Aid that has not yet posted to your student account but is still anticipated. If you believe there are scholarships or loans not listed as "pending financial aid" on your invoice, contact the Financial Aid office immediately: 800-718-9746 or financialaid@wabash.edu.
9. Wabash Student Employment credit is determined by multiplying the amount you plan to earn (up to your award for the semester) by the payroll deduction percentage you authorized on the Wabash Student Employment Response Form (www.wabash.edu/WSE) by 90% (to account for estimated payroll taxes). This advance credit is only added if you have completed the Wabash Student Employment Response Form to authorize a payroll deduction. If you do not earn enough to cover the credit during the semester, the remaining balance is due at the end of the semester.
10. Payment Plan Expected: If you are enrolled in a TMS payment plan, this is the advance credit for the remaining payment plan payments we expect to receive for the semester. (enroll at www.wabash.afford.com).
