

Traditional Wedding Ceremony Seating Chart

(Please fill in names on both Bride's and Groom's sides*)

_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____

Bride's Side

_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____

Groom's Side

*Note: Traditionally, Parents and Grandparents are seated as such:

First row-Left-Bride's Mother, Bride's Father, Grandparents, Step parents and spouses

First row-Right-Groom's Mother, Groom's Father, Grandparents, Step parents and spouses

Alternate seating-Grandparents may sit on second row. Stepparents and spouses may sit on second or third row. Other family members may also sit on second or third row.

Flower Girl and Ring Bearer may sit on second or third row with parents/guardians if not standing during ceremony.

(There are many variations of this, so create a seating chart that suits your needs.)

Jewish Wedding Ceremony Seating Chart

(Please fill in names on both Bride's and Groom's sides*)

Groom's Side

Bride's Side

*Note: In Jewish ceremonies, Parents stand at altar with Bride and Groom and Grandparents are seated as such:

First row-Left-Groom's Grandparents, Step parents and spouses

First row-Right-Bride's Grandparents, Step parents and spouses

Alternate seating-Stepparents and spouses may sit on second or third row. Other family members may also sit on second or third row.

Flower Girl and Ring Bearer may sit on second or third row with parents/guardians if not standing during ceremony.

(There are many variations of this, so create a seating chart that suits your needs.)