

Information sheet for group travel

Making your trip unique – even before you set off.

Before the journey

Register your group trip as early as possible (at least two days before departure) so that we can make enough seats available. If you would prefer a quiet trip, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays are your best bet. For maximum convenience, we advise that you choose routes with few changes and – if possible – services that operate outside peak travel times (6:00-8:00 and 16:00-19:00).

You can calculate the cost of your group trip and book it online at <http://www.sbb.ch/en/leisure-holidays/groups.html> – it's simple. You will find brief instructions on how to do this overleaf.

During the trip

Approximately one hour before you are due to leave, you will receive an SMS telling you exactly where the coach with your reserved seats will be located. The group should gather at this location fifteen minutes before the departure of the train.

The white safety lines will help you to move around safely on the platform. Please make sure that you do not go beyond these lines.

If you are travelling in a large group, you are advised to split up and enter the train via different doors. In that way, the whole group will be able to board swiftly and without hold-ups at the coach door. Likewise, you should load your luggage onto the train as quickly as possible and place it in a designated storage area after you have boarded (e.g. under or between the seats or on the luggage rack above your head).

Please ensure that the members of your group sit down on the seats that have been reserved for them, as this makes it easier for other school parties and groups to board.

On most S-Bahn, regional and Regio Express trains, the coaches are not marked. We recommend that you board the train at either the front or the rear, as you have a better chance of finding enough free seats for your group in those areas.

If there are changes to your journey or a problem arises, please contact the train crew or the free helpline for groups on 0800 22 00 11. That way, we can plan the rest of your route and check the connections and seat reservations. Please note that this helpline should be used exclusively for issues that arise during the journey.

We wish you an exciting group trip and a pleasant journey!
