PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that you are hereby required to vacate the premises within thirty (30) calendar days following the Date of Service of this notice. If you do not comply with this notice, your possession of the premises will be unlawful (called "unlawful detainer"), and your landlord may initiate an eviction against you by either serving you with a Five-Day Notice to Quit for Unlawful Detainer or a Summons and Complaint for Unlawful Detainer. If the court determines that you are guilty of an unlawful detainer, the court may issue a summary order for your removal or an order providing for your nonadmittance, directing the sheriff or constable to remove you within twenty-four (24) hours after receipt of the order.

If you are sixty (60) years of age or older, or if you have a physical or mental disability, and your tenancy is not week-to-week, you may make a written request to your landlord to be allowed to continue in possession of the rental premises for an additional thirty (30) days past the expiration of this notice. You must provide your landlord with proof of your age or disability with your written request. If your landlord rejects your request, you have the right to petition the court to continue in possession of the rental unit for an additional thirty (30) days.

Pursuant to NRS 118A.390, you may seek relief if a landlord unlawfully removes you from the premises, or excludes you by blocking or attempting to block your entry upon the premises, or willfully interrupts or causes or permits the interruption of an essential service required by the rental agreement or chapter 118A of the Nevada Revised Statutes.
