

Letter of self-introduction

Write a letter to your teacher telling me about you. You will want to consider many of the questions below as you formulate your response:

- How would you describe your personality?
- Explain how you feel about reading aloud in class or doing a presentation in front of others.
- Tell me about yourself as a reader. Describe any experiences you have had reporting on books.
- Describe your writing/composition abilities. Do you consider yourself a good writer? What kinds of things do you like/hate to write about? What are your strongest and weakest skills in English? Where do you see room for improvement?
- Describe previous assignments in English that you loved or hated.
- What would you like to accomplish in this class?
- What are your interests/talents/skills/hobbies? What are you proudest of that you have accomplished in school or outside of school?
- What can I do that will be most interesting or helpful to you? Is there any other advice that you'd like to give me? Are there any questions you'd like to ask me? Is there anything else you feel I should know about you?
- Please print, sign your full name and address this to me as if this were a real letter.
- Thanks!
