Assignment of Rights

We – the Thieme Publishing Group – do not accept for publication in a journal any manuscript that has previously been published elsewhere.

Your consent to the following assignments of rights, also on behalf of the other authors (if several authors contribute to the manuscript), and the signing of this Copyright Transfer Agreement is a necessary requirement for the publication of your manuscript.

Upon acceptance of your manuscript by us you assign to us (on behalf of all authors), without geographical or language restriction and for the duration of the legal copyright term, the rights to use your article, for all print runs/updates, including the rights to:

- reproduce and distribute copies of the article in printed form (e.g., in a periodical or journal, medical textbook or other target group oriented book, paperback book, special edition for secondary markets or special customers, brochures, advertising supplements, edited volumes, etc.);
- reproduce and distribute the article in electronic media formats (e.g., magnetic tape, CD-Rom, CDI, DVD, electronic paper, hardware RAM, hard-disk, USB memory stick, cloud-based service) and make available to the public (e.g., internet, intranet or other wired or wireless data networks), in particular by displaying on stationary or mobile visual display units, monitors, PDA, mobile phones, smart phones or other devices by download (e.g., e-pub, PDF, App) or retrieval in any other form;
- publish ourselves or to authorize the publication of excerpts in other works or articles, in audio-visual accompanying materials or interactive products or services, and including the transfer of rights of use to third parties (e.g., under the terms of licensing agreements);

– translate, transfer and process into other languages or versions (e.g., podcast, audiobook or other image and sound carriers), broadcast by means of television, cable or satellites, radio or other audio-visual media, to rent out and lend, store in an electronic archive and to use in any other type of format that may become known in the future and – where applicable – for all other rights protected by organizations assessing and/or collecting fees for copyright use. Furthermore you assign to us all statutory royalty claims under relevant law insofar we mandate a reproduction rights organization to administer such rights for publishers and authors; we accept the assignments.

The aforesaid rights to use are assigned to us exclusively. Your rights to use the article as author in accordance with the provisions in the following section „Authors' rights and Green Open Access” shall remain unaffected.

Any adaptations, if appropriate for the exercise of the rights of use granted to us, shall be processed by us. Please forward any inquiries that are addressed to you regarding the above-mentioned rights of use for our attention and response.

Authors' rights and Green Open Access

The rights of use are assigned to us exclusively – subject to your rights in accordance with our Open Access Guidelines. Our Open Access Guidelines state that immediately after the publication of the article by us, you and the other authors are entitled to make the published version of the article available to the public on your homepage for your own scientific and other non-commercial purposes. Twelve months after publication by us, you and the other authors are entitled to make the accepted manuscript version available to the public on other non-commercial websites, provided that you make full reference to the published version (“Green Open Access”). For further details please click the button “Authors' rights and Green Open Access.”

For more Information on our Open Access Program please visit <http://open.thieme.com>.

If you wish to publish your article Gold Open Access, please contact openthieme@thieme.de.

Duties of care

Product liability laws set high standards for your duty of care as the author of a scientific manuscript. This is especially the case when you give therapeutic information and/or specify doses. Therefore please check this information carefully in the typeset page-proofs of your article. Your task will be much easier if you have the information counterchecked – depending on the sensitivity of the information within the article – by specialist colleagues. Only you, as the author, have the specialist knowledge to be able to assess the accuracy of the information. For further information on how to indicate corrections, please click the button “Correction markup symbols”.

Author's Declaration

I have taken note of the information on the duties of care under product liability law; I agree to the assignments of rights in accordance with the foregoing sections “Assignment of Rights” and “Authors' rights and Green Open Access” also on behalf of the other authors (if several authors have contributed to the article).

I declare that no third party rights will be infringed through the publication. Any material contained in the manuscript (including illustrations, tables, or other material) from third-party sources will be identified as such through citation, indicating the source. If required, I have obtained the copyright permission from the publishers concerned.

The above-mentioned assignments of rights also relate to the illustrations in your manuscript. We do not accept any illustrations for which it has not been granted all rights of use in accordance with this contract.

Should one of the foregoing regulations be or become invalid in whole or in part this shall not affect the validity of the other provisions. Any invalid provision shall be replaced by a regulation that comes as close as possible to the purpose of the invalid provision in economic terms, insofar as legally permissible.

This article is ready to print after the execution of the corrections indicated by me.
