

After School Academic Enrichment Program

S.T.E.A.M – Dance – Chess – Character Education

Community Needs & Program Overview

Established in 1983, Woodstream Church, Woodstream Academy (WCA) and Project Ring the Bell for Education currently provide educational support for hundreds of children from neighboring areas in Prince George's County, Maryland. The purpose of the partnership is to offer academic, recreational, spiritual and social activities for children after school. Students are picked up from their school and brought to the Center to participate in a safe, exciting and engaging program. Students receive individualized instruction from Academy personnel, volunteers, and local community businesspersons.

Benefits of Enrichment

“Afterschool programs in Maryland keep kids safe, boost student success and help parents keep their jobs. Kids achieve more, productivity goes up, and risky behaviors go down.”

- Afterschool Alliance

“Students participating in quality afterschool programs attend school more often, do better in school, and are more likely to graduate. Students improve their grades and test scores and make gains that help narrow the achievement gap...”

-Afterschool Alliance

5. If payment is not received then the student will be unable to participate in our after school program. A $10.00 fee per day will be assessed to your account for each day late. If payment is not received after 5 days, service will be suspended. Once the account is brought current, service may resume.

Absenteeism

Payments are expected on a continuous basis. In the case of unforeseen absences or excused absences parents are still expected to submit payment upon child's return to the program. If a child is sick or otherwise absent for any reason, on any given day for which payment has been made, or has been agreed to pay, there will be entitlement to a refund or reduction for amounts due or paid.

Behavior Management

When inappropriate student behavior disrupts the program or is unacceptable to staff or participants, the Center Director will see that appropriate behavior management techniques are implemented. The Director will inform the student's parents/guardians of the behavior.

Refund Policy

There are no refunds for the Registration Fee, Weekly Payments, or Activity Fees paid to Woodstream Christian Academy. In addition, fees are not transferable to other children.

Withdrawal

Parents/Guardians are to provide a two-week notice prior to withdrawing a student from the program. If there is no two-week notice then the parent is responsible for submitting payment for those two weeks.

Returned Payment

For all returned checks, a $35.00 return check fee is applied plus a $10.00 a day late fee will be assessed from the day the check was written up to the date the check is posted by Woodstream Christian Academy's bank as insufficient funds.

Late Payment

Students must be picked-up no later than 6:00 PM daily. Children who have not been picked-up by 6:00 PM are automatically charged $2.00 per minute. Late fees must be paid in cash at the time of pick up. Failure to pay late fees will result in students not participating in the program.

Students will only be allowed to leave with an authorized person.
