

NEW EMPLOYEE ORIENTATION CHECKLIST

Every new employee, regardless of previous training or experience, needs to be introduced to the work environment and instructed in the performance of specific tasks. Orientation programs are intended to get the new employee off to a good start by establishing a sense of belonging and cooperation, by creating favorable attitudes, by supplying necessary information that will answer an employee's questions, and by removing fears or uncertainties which may be barriers to effective job learning and performance.

The following checklist of items should be covered in your new employee orientation. Please meet with the employee within the first week of his/her start date to go through this list. Include any special information that is pertinent to your department. If you have any questions, please call Employment Services at 989-774-2010.
