Instructions

Please complete this Summary Sheet as soon as possible after your interview. Reflect on what you heard and make notes of the best ideas, stories and quotes. Make notes that will remind you of the information you heard and also enable someone else, who was not at the interview, to understand what you heard.

Remember that a story is not a list of bullet points – a story has characters, a setting and a plot – something happens. We want the whole story you heard! Wherever possible, quote your partner rather than using your own words.

1. The Best Story

- o What was the most interesting or compelling story you heard during this interview?

- What made this particular story stand out for you? What stays with you from hearing the story?

- What was the best idea, thought or phrase that came out of this interview – something you would want to quote to other people?

2. Who we are/what we value/what needs change

- What image of Aotearoa/New Zealand – the 'best of' – did your partner convey to you?

- What was the word or phrase, your partner used to describe New Zealand at its best?

- [illegible]

3. About the future:

- o What stood out for you about how your partner described their own best dream for the future?
- o What support would your partner need to start realising their dream?
- o What were the most inspiring, compelling images you heard in your in how your partner described the Aotearoa/New Zealand of the future?

- o Describe the most positive possible future this interview stimulates you to imagine for the New Zealand.
