6. Project Background and Objectives

- 6.1 The City is currently implementing the existing Youth Service Plan, Where Youth Thrive:

http://www.richmond.ca/shared/assets/Where Youth Thrive21206.pdf

This plan was endorsed by Council in 2008. This plan for serving youth builds on the foundations laid in the City's 1995 Youth Strategy. The "Where Youth Thrive" plan aims to create an environment that generates opportunities for Richmond's youth to have a safe and healthy journey into adulthood, equipped with the necessary knowledge, skills and social connections to make informed decisions about their life and the contributions they wish to make to their community.

- 6.2 The time frame for the City of Richmond's Youth Service Plan was 2008-2012. Although the content of the document is still relevant, the updated Youth Service Plan for 2013-2017 should reflect any pertinent changes to the City (e.g. departmental realignment) and community (e.g. demographics, agency realignment), address the appropriateness of the overall document moving forward, and from the assessment, prepare an updated plan for 2013-2017.

- 6.3 The updated Youth Service Plan Update is intended to:

- a) Identify future strategic directions for youth services in Richmond.
- b) Be user friendly and accessible to youth.
- c) Ensure the actions development are SMART (Specific, Measurable, Attainable/Actionable, and Relevant).
- d) Clarify appropriate responsibilities within Richmond for the City and others.
- e) Be a document that is written from both a Community Recreation and Community Social Development Lens.
- f) Provide the foundation for more effective and sustainable planning and service delivery in the future.

- 6.4 There are two primary reasons for preparing the updated Youth Service Plan:

- a) Increasing complexity of issues - As Richmond and the region continue to grow and develop, the type and nature of youth issues being faced are becoming increasingly complex and challenging (e.g., mental health, bullying, addictions, inactivity). Further, the City is not in a position to “do it alone” in responding to these issues – it needs to be strategic, adopt appropriate roles, and work in partnership with other stakeholders. The Youth Service Plan is intended to help the City in defining its future course in helping to create an environment that generates opportunities for Richmond’s youth to thrive.

- b) Council priority - Council recognizes the importance of having an updated document to help frame its future decisions on youth services. Indeed, an updated Service Plan was requested when Council articulated its goals for the current term of office in late 2012.
