

VISITOR NONDISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

Welcome to Flex, Name:

Company Name:

As a guest and upon entry onto our premises, you understand and agree as follows:

1. I may be given access to confidential information belonging to Flex ("Company") as a result of my access to Company's premises, and I will not discuss or share any confidential information that I may see or hear during my visit.
2. I understand and acknowledge that Company's confidential information consists of information and materials that are valuable and not generally known to the public, including, without limitation:
 - a) any and all information concerning Company's current, future or proposed products including: computer code, whiteboard notes and sketches, drawings, specifications, notebook entries, technical notes and graphs, computer printouts, technical memoranda and correspondence, product development agreements and any other agreements relating to such information of Company,
 - b) information and materials relating to Company's purchasing, accounting and marketing, including, marketing plans, sales data, unpublished promotional material, cost and pricing information and customer lists,
 - c) information related to the functionality of the Flex Pulse Center and Customer Experience Center, and
 - d) information of the type described above which Company obtained from another party and which Company treats as confidential, whether or not owned or developed by Company.
3. I will not remove any document, equipment or other materials from the premises without Company's written permission.
4. I will not photograph or otherwise record any information to which I may have access during my visit.
5. I understand that if (i) there is any conflict between this agreement and any separate non-disclosure agreement or non-disclosure terms within a separate agreement between myself or the entity I represent and Flex or (ii) such other non-disclosure agreement or terms are more restrictive, the terms of such other agreement shall govern.

Signature: _____

Name:

Title:

Date: