Type: Individual or Team
Submission: Presentation with Equipment
Rating Sheet: <http://www.fbla-pbl.org/media/Social-Media-Campaign-FBLA-Rating-Sheet.pdf>

2020 Topic

Financial literacy is important for financial health in the future. Plan a social media campaign to increase an FBLA member's knowledge of finances and the impact of personal financial literacy training. (NOTE: No live social media accounts should be created for this event.)

Specific Guidelines

- Effectively address a recruitment opportunity and a strategic approach to target audience.
- Topic is addressed effectively and is appropriate for the audience.
- Campaign has high level of engagement and interactivity: Likes, shares, retweets, RSVPs, etc.
- Demonstrates knowledge of social media marketing beyond community management, including but not limited to: developing unique content, effectively utilizing existing content, optimizing content for search, and distributing content across as many platforms as possible within a limited budget.
- Describe any applicable insight/research methodology as to why you have chosen specific platforms, messaging, content, engagement and outreach strategies.
- Overall campaign—images, videos, copywriting, graphic designs (if applicable)—is creative and appealing.
- Final product indicates a clear thought process, a well-formulated campaign, and execution of a firm idea.
- Effectively communicate required information and drive the campaign toward a clear call-to-action.
- Comply with state and federal copyright laws.

Procedure

- Competitors are permitted to bring prepared notes of any type for the presentation.
- Visual aids (can be electronic, printed, etc.) are permitted during the presentation. However, no materials may be left with the judges.
- Comply with state and federal copyright laws.
- Competitors should introduce themselves, and their presentation should follow the rating sheet.
- Competitors are responsible for bringing a copy of their project to show to the judges.

Eligibility
