

Charity food donation agreement between food suppliers and Food for Charities

Supplier:

Branch:

Address:

Telephone no.:

Email:

1. Background

Food for Charities picks up quality surplus food that would otherwise be thrown away, and delivers it to other charities. In order to receive products from the supplier, Food for Charities must also enter into a comply with the terms and conditions of this agreement.

2. Supply of food

The supplier will only provide products to an authorised agent of Food for Charities. The agent should be able to provide proof of authorisation on request.

Food for Charities will only pick up food that is clearly safe for human consumption and for which we know there is a need.

3. Use of products by Food for Charities

Food for Charities undertakes to only use the products to supply them to other charities. The products may not be sold, exchanged for other goods or services, or used to derive income or profit.

Food for Charities undertakes to comply with legal standards of hygiene in the handling, storage and supply of the products, and that staff involved in the handling of products will be fully trained in any relevant food safety and hygiene legislation.

4. Liability

All products, once collected by Food for Charities or delivered by the supplier, will be the sole property of Food for Charities. The supplier accepts no liability in respect thereof.

5. Indemnity

Food for Charities shall indemnify the supplier against claims, liabilities, costs incurred by the supplier arising out of, or in consequence of any act, neglect or default of Food for Charities, its agents or employees.

6. General

This agreement shall be governed by English Law. The signatory for Food for Charities must be of a management level.

This agreement will continue indefinitely. Either party has the right to terminate giving one month's written notice. The supplier also has the right to terminate the agreement upon material breach of the said agreement.

Signatures:

(Supplier name)

Food for Charities

Name:

Name:

Position:

Position:

Signature:

Signature:

Date:

Date: