

DEED OF ASSIGNMENT

This document may be used in relation to both Life Account and Life Account 2 Contracts.

This document is provided strictly for consideration by the Contract Holder's legal advisers. Old Mutual Guernsey accepts no responsibility for any loss of whatsoever nature occasioned by the adoption unamended or otherwise of this draft deed.

Any advice given on completion of the deed is accordingly given on the basis that, having discussed the deed with legal advisers, the draft deed put forward for consideration is adopted duly completed but otherwise unamended.

It is a requirement for Old Mutual Guernsey to obtain both a valid passport/ID and verification of residential address for all the Assignors and Assignees.

NOTES

1. Old Mutual Guernsey will accept no liability for any loss however caused should the Deed of Assignment be invalid.
2. Old Mutual Guernsey will be the final arbiter as to the issue of the acceptability, or otherwise, of the nominated witness.
3. By signing this Deed of Assignment the Contract Holder(s) indemnify Old Mutual Guernsey and its employees against any claim arising out of the misuse or misappropriation of the Contract or proceeds thereof by the Assignee(s) named herein, or any other person.
4. Please note that a certified copy of passport(s)/ID(s) and address(es) will be required for all Assignee(s). In addition to this an authorised signatory list will be required for assignments to corporate bodies and the company reserves the right to ask and obtain additional verification documentation where deemed necessary.
5. The assignment of the Contract could be delayed or refused if documentation is not sufficient or obtained in accordance with Guernsey regulations.
6. Please allow 10 working days for the assignment to be processed, following submission of this Deed of Assignment.
7. Where a Contract has an associated Visa Card, the assignment will not occur until the card balance has been paid to the card provider.
8. No significant transaction, such as a switch or encashment, can take place until Old Mutual Guernsey is in receipt of such information or documents that we reasonably request in order to comply with the anti-money laundering regulations and legislation in Guernsey or any other relevant jurisdiction.
9. Old Mutual Life Assurance Company South Africa (OMLACSA) has provided details of all our Privacy Notices to you via our literature and General terms and conditions. Our full Privacy Policy can be viewed at www.omi-int.com/privacyPolicy.html or can be obtained by requesting a copy from our Data Protection Officer at enquiries@impactiom.com.

I/We enclose Certified Copy/Copies of valid passport(s)/ID(s) of all Assignors and Assignees

- The person certifying the copy as a true original must be qualified to do so (Commissioner of Oaths, Justice of the Peace, or similar) and must have seen the original passport(s)/ID(s) and the individual that it relates to in person.
- The copy must also be a clear picture that shows a recognisable likeness of the individual.
- The clear picture must not be greater than 10 years old.
- Unclear/uncertified copies will result in a delay in processing this form.

If the Assignee/Assignor is a juristic person/trust this requirement extends to all directors, trustees, settlors and all named beneficiaries. A certified copy of the corporate founding document or trust deed will also be required.

I/We enclose verification of residential address(es) of all Assignors and Assignees

- The verification document must either be a utility bill issued by an independent authority, or other documentary proof of residence satisfactory to Old Mutual Guernsey.
- It must be either an original or a certified true copy.
- It must be less than six months old at the point of submission.
- The address must verify the residential address as completed on the form.
- This address must be the real address and not, for example, a PO Box.
- If these requirements are not met this will result in a delay in processing this form.

If the Assignee/Assignor is a juristic person/trust this requirement extends to all directors, trustees, settlors and all named beneficiaries. A certified copy of the corporate founding document or trust deed will also be required.
