The Roost Consignment Boutique (The Roost) reserves the right to accept or decline any consignment item. All consignment items must be clean and free of dust and stains and be in desirable condition and quality for resale.

A maximum of 15 items may be brought in at any given time. All items will be cataloged and numbered with a consignor ID number and stock number. The Roost is not responsible for loss, damage, or theft of any consigned item.

The Roost agrees to pay the consignor 40% of the selling price for clothes & accessories and 50% for furniture. Consignors may stop in any time to inquire about their account balance and we will pay you cash or check for items sold on the spot. After 6 weeks, The Roost will automatically discount clothing and household décor items by 25%. After 8 weeks The Roost will discount furniture by 15%.

The Roost will hold items on consignment for 60-90 days. Any items removed must be signed out. It is the sole responsibility of the consignor to pick up consigned merchandise after the consignment period. We will hold pulled items up to 2 weeks. Clothing, accessories and household décor items left longer than 2 weeks will become the property of The Roost unless otherwise agreed upon. The Roost will donate the items to a local charity organization.
