Part 1. Important Info

- ❖ Use this only if you are involved in a family law case in a Superior Court in the state of Washington.

A. Should I use this?

Use this only if you are

- Petitioner (starting the court case) or Respondent (responding to the petition) in a family law case where someone is asking for child support. Examples of such cases: Petition for Divorce, Petition to End Domestic Partnership, Petition to Establish Parentage.
- Either parent in a Petition to Change Parenting Plan.

This packet should help you fill out the forms and papers for child support orders. Do not use it alone. Use it with the other packet(s) you need, for example Make a Parenting Plan, and/or File for Divorce.

Before using this, read How is Child Support Set. If you or the other party is in the military, read Military Service and Petitions to Change Parenting Plans: Your Rights in Washington State. Get the other do-it-yourself family law packets you need. These are all available at WashingtonLawHelp.org.

In this packet, “the other parent” means the other party or person involved in your court case. This could be someone other than a parent (example: a grandparent or other party petitioning for custody). Where your case involves parties other than the parents, anything required for “the other parent” is also required for every other party.

This has no forms or instructions for filing and serving the papers or for preparing for or going to hearings. Visit WashingtonLawHelp.org for more on those issues.

B. Try Using Washington Forms Online

The Northwest Justice Project has a program called Washington Forms Online. It helps people fill out family law forms on a computer. Answer interview questions on LawHelp Interactive to create completed forms and instructions that are ready for your use. The forms included in this packet and many others are available now at WashingtonLawHelp.org.

C. What if I have questions that this packet does not answer?

Talk to a lawyer familiar with family law before filing anything with the court. Many counties have family law facilitators who can help you out forms or free legal clinics where you can get legal advice.

- Do you live in King County? Call 211 weekdays, 8:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m. From a pay or public phone, call 1-800-621-4636. They will refer you to a legal aid provider.
- Apply online with CLEAR\*Online - nwjustice.org/get-legal-help
- Call the CLEAR Legal Hotline at 1-888-201-1014.

Part 2. Court forms in this packet

The following forms are all included at the end of this packet.

If you don't want to fill out the forms by hand, use Washington Forms Online at WashingtonLawHelp.org. This free program will help you fill out court forms. The interview asks questions and uses your answers to complete your forms. When you finish the interview, you can save, edit, email, download or print your completed forms.

You can also download these court forms in Microsoft Word or PDF format at

Forms you need in this packet:

Court Form Title	Court Form Number
Washington State Child Support Schedule & Worksheets	CS Schedule; CS Worksheet
Financial Declaration of:	FL All Family 131
Sealed Financial Source Documents (Cover Sheet)	FL All Family 011
Child Support Order	FL All Family 130

Part 3. Other court forms and documents you may need to get

You may need other forms or papers that are not in any of our packets.

Our packets provide only the forms you need at the stage you need them. You will need more than one packet to file and finalize your case. Read the info below carefully. Check the boxes by the other packets you need.

If you have a very low income, you can get packets by mail by calling CLEAR at 1-888-201-1014.

- ☐ File for Divorce
- ☐ File a Petition to Decide Parentage – if you were never married to the child’s other parent.
- ☐ File a Petition to Change Your Parenting Plan, Residential Schedule, or Custody Order – if the court already entered a final parenting plan, and you want to change it.
- ☐ Make a Parenting Plan – to ask for court orders about custody and/or visitation.
- ☐ Respond to Divorce Petition or Respond to Petition to End Domestic Partnership – if you have been served with one of these petitions
- ☐ Respond to Petition to Decide Parentage – if you have been served with this Petition
- ☐ Respond to Petition to Change Parenting Plan, Residential Schedule, or Custody Order –if you have been served with this petition.
- ☐ Finalize a Divorce \(with children\) by Agreement or Finalize a Divorce by Default– if you have already filed or responded to a divorce and need to finalize.
- ☐ Finalize a Petition to a Change Parenting Plan – if you have already filed or been served with this type of petition and need to finalize.
- ☐ Ask for Temporary Family Law Orders: Divorce Cases and Petition to Change Parenting Plan Cases or Ask for Immediate Restraining Orders: Divorce Cases and Petition to Change Parenting Plan Cases - for an order covering the period between the time your case is filed and the entry of final orders, or to ask for a Guardian ad Litem. These packets have the Sealed Personal Health Care Records Cover Sheet and the Sealed Confidential Reports Cover Sheet.

- ☐ Respond to Motions for Temporary Family Law Orders or Immediate Restraining Orders in a Family Law Case - if the other party has served you with one of these motions.
- ☐ Ask for Temporary Family Law Orders: Parentage Cases; Ask for Temporary Family Law Order: Petition to Change Parenting Plan Cases or Ask for Immediate Restraining Orders: Parentage Cases – for an order covering the period between the filing of your case and the entry of final orders or if you want to appoint a Guardian Ad Litem (GAL). (The main packet you are using and Guardians Ad Litem in Family Law Cases have more about GALs. These packets have the Sealed Personal Health Care Records Cover Sheet and the Sealed Confidential Reports Cover Sheet you need if filing this confidential info.)
- ☐ Respond to Motions for Temporary Family Law Orders or Immediate Restraining Orders: Parentage Cases - if the other party has served you with one of these type of motions.
- ☐ Declaration about Public Assistance (FL All Family 132): We do not include this form in our packets. It is optional. We tell you to serve the State in any case where TANF, Medicaid, or foster care is involved. We tell you to get the state's signature on all default and agreed orders where the state might have an interest in the child support obligation in your case. You may need the form if your county requires it, or to verify that no public assistance has been paid or that the children are not in foster care or out-of-home placement. Get it at www.courts.wa.gov/forms.
- ☐ Serving Papers on the State – Get this if child support is an issue, and any child has gotten public assistance (TANF) or medical coupons or Medicaid, or is in foster care or out-of-home placement. You must include the state as a party and serve them with papers you file.
- ☐ Notice of Address Change (FL All Family 120): If you move during or after your case, fill this out, file it with the court, and get all other parties a copy. Get it at www.courts.wa.gov/forms.
- ☐ Other: Local Do-it-Yourself packets: Some counties may require other forms or packets. Ask the court clerk or family law facilitator (if there is one) if your county needs more info.

Part 4. General instructions for filling out forms

The General Instructions provide important info that applies to all forms, including how to fill out the caption. Follow those general instructions for all the forms you use before going on to the instructions for each form.

THE CAPTION. The caption is the name of your case. It is a section appearing at the top of the first page of every form. See the sample below:

Superior Court of Washington, County of In re the marriage of: Petitioner (person who started this case): Jane Brown And Respondent (other spouse): John Brown	No. _____ Notice of Hearing (NTHG) <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Clerk's action required: 1
--	---

Annotations:

- Arrow from "This case type is for a divorce." points to "Superior Court of Washington, County of".
- Arrow from "Put the county where you are filing this form." points to "County of".
- Arrow from "Put the case number. The court clerk assigns this number when the Petitioner files the case." points to "No. _____".
- Arrow from "This is the form's title." points to "Notice of Hearing (NTHG)".

Case number. When petitioner files the papers to start the case and pays the filing fee (or has it waived), the court clerk assigns a case number. You must put that number on every paper you file with the court and serve on the other parties during the case. Put it near the top on the right-hand section of the first page of every form after "No." (abbreviation for "number")

When petitioner first files the case, petitioner may be able to use a special stamp at the court clerk's counter to stamp the case number on each paper. You may print or stamp the case number. If you are filing a modification or adjustment case in the same court that entered the order you want to change, use the case number on that order.

- ❖ If you do not put the case number on the first page of every copy of everything you file with the court and copies for other parties, your papers may be lost, or the clerk may return them to you. Some courts will fine you for filing incorrect forms.

Title. Each form has a title on the right-hand side of the form under the case number. You may have to add to it. Example: on a declaration, you put the name of the person filling out the declaration.

- ❖ Format: Pleadings (legal forms) you file with the court and attachments to pleadings must follow court rules about size and margins (GR 14\(a\)). You must use regular size (8 ½ x 11”) white paper. You may write on only one side. The first page of each paper you file must have three inches of space (a 3-inch margin) at the top. The other margins (left, right and bottom, and the top from the second page on) must be at least one inch wide. Use black or dark blue ink. If your forms do not follow these rules, the clerk may refuse to file them or make you pay a fine.

The contents. Fill out each form according to its instructions. Usually you may print or type. It must be readable. You must use black or dark blue ink. After filling out each form, re-read it. Make sure you have correctly filled in all blanks needed. Any corrections must be neat and readable.

Do not write in the margins. The clerk may reject your form.

Dates. The last page of most forms (not orders) has a space for the person filling it out to put the date they signed it. The judge puts dates in orders when she signs it.

Signatures.

- Your Signature: After filling out a form, look for the place(s) to sign your name:
  - Some forms have one signature line for “petitioner” or “respondent.” After filling out a form such as the petition, sign at the place that applies to you. Look carefully. You may have to sign in more than one place. You may have to put the date and place (city, state) you signed it.

- When you prepare and file motions, you are the moving party. On the last page of your motion, you must fill out and sign the section Person making this motion or requesting this order fills out below. When you prepare an order and plan to present it to the judge to sign, look for the place at the end for your signature. Check is presented by me.
- Judge's Signature: Leave the judge's signature line and the date blank.
- Other party's signature: Some forms have a place for other parties to sign. You cannot force another party to sign a court paper. The other party can choose (not) to sign. If you have prepared an order after a hearing, the other party may be willing to sign it if they agree it accurately states the judge's decisions (or the judge may require the other party to sign), even if the party is not happy with the decision itself.
  - Agreed orders. If the other party agrees with the orders you have written, they should sign in the right place on each court order they agree to.
  - May be signed by the court without notice to me. If you are the respondent or nonmoving party, or you did not prepare the order, the other party may ask you to check this box and sign. If you do, you are agreeing the judge should sign the order as written AND the other party can give the order to the judge to sign without letting you know when they are doing it.
- Other signatures: If someone else (a witness or the person serving papers) must sign a form, they must fill out all info correctly and sign in the right space.

Place signed. Motions, Declarations, and Proofs of Service must include the date and place you signed them.

Identifying Information. Court rules try to protect privacy but also allow for public access to some info in court files. The next three boxes discuss these rules:

Box #1- Things to not write in most court papers:

Court General Rules 22 & 31 try to protect privacy in family law cases. Almost all pleadings, orders and other papers filed with the court are available to the public. They may also be available to the public online.

Except where instructions about a specific form tell you otherwise (example: the forms in Box #3), use these rules for papers you file with the court.

Address (Where you Live) and Phone Number: You must put an address where you can get mail from the court. It does not have to be your home address. You should also give the court a phone number where they can reach you.

Social Security/Driver's License, ID Numbers of Adults and Children: Put only the last four digits.

Bank Account, Credit Card Numbers: Put the bank name, type of account (savings, checking, and so on), and last four digits of the account number.

Box #2 - Private information you should file with sealed cover sheets:

If you use a sealed cover sheet, this info is usually available to the other party and the court. It is not available to the public.

Financial Information: You must attach any paystubs, checks, loan applications, tax returns, credit card statements, check registers, W-2 forms, bank statements, or retirement plan orders you file to a Sealed Financial Source Documents form. Then the public cannot access them.

Medical or Mental Health Records or Information: You must attach anything you file with info about someone's past, present, or future physical or mental health, including insurance or payment records to a Sealed Personal Health Care Records form. Then the public cannot access them.

Confidential Reports: Reports intended for court use must have public and private sections. You attach the private to a Sealed Confidential Reports Cover Sheet.

Retirement Plan Orders: Certain retirement info belongs in the public file. "Retirement Plan Orders" do not. Use the Sealed Financial Source Documents Cover Sheet for the Retirement Plan Order. See GR 22, or see a lawyer if this affects your case.

Other Kinds of Confidential or Embarrassing Information Not Mentioned Above. If the paper you want kept confidential is not in this list, you may need to file a motion asking to have that paper, or part of it, sealed under General Rule \(GR\) 15. Talk to a lawyer.

Box #3 - When to put private information in court forms:

These forms are not in the public file. Info in them is usually not available to the other party.

You must fill in your personal info completely (including your home address, social security number, and so on):

*Confidential Information Form

*Vital Statistics Form

*Domestic Violence Information Form

*Law Enforcement Information Sheet.

Part 5. How to fill out each form

A. Washington State Child Support Worksheets

Each party must fill out a set of child support worksheets, using the instructions and schedule that come with them. You may have to file and serve worksheets more than once during the course of your case:

- With the Petition and Response
- When there are motions and hearings involving child support, to update info in your first set of worksheets

The judge will sign a set of worksheets he approves when entering a child support order. The judge may sign worksheets you prepared. Or the judge may ask you to prepare a new set of worksheets with the specific income, expense, and child support amounts the judge announced at hearing or trial.

❖ The instructions here only cover a few special issues.

---

The instructions and worksheets in this packet are current as of January 2019. Use them along with the Washington State Child Support Schedule. Also, read How is Child Support is Set.

- ❖ These instructions are for filling out worksheets based on the income, child support amounts, and expense figures you propose at the start of the case and/or before a hearing or trial.
  - ❖ If the parties all agree on the income, child support amounts, and expense figures, you must fill out the worksheets using the figures you agree to. You may still need to show the judge that those amounts are correct.
  - ❖ If you are filling these worksheets out after the judge has announced a decision, you must use the income, child support amounts, expenses, and other info the judge announced, even if you disagree with them and/or they are different from what you proposed.

Use the Division of Child Support's (DCS) online Child Support Estimator, <https://fortress.wa.gov/dshs/dcs/SSGen/Home/QuickEstimator> for help

- estimating the amount of support the judge might order
- preparing proposed child support worksheets
- filling out your Worksheets online

❖ The Estimator may not work if you are asking for a “deviation” from the standard child support calculation. Examples of when you might do this: the parents have the children a lot; there are children from other relationships; each parent has custody of a child.

---

To fill out the worksheets, follow the instructions in the Washington State Child Support Schedule (WSCSS). They explain:

- the meaning of gross and net income
- how to list your income
- how and when to impute income to the other party
- how to fill out the rest of the financial info

These instructions address gaps in the WSCSS instructions:

1. Above the caption, check the box showing if these worksheets are proposed or an order signed by the judge. If they are proposed, check the box showing who is proposing them and put your name.
2. Caption your worksheets: At the top of worksheet page 1, put your county, the case number, the parents' and children's names, and children's ages where it says. Each parent will get a column where their info will go.
3. List your info on the Worksheet in Column 1. The other parent's info goes in Column 2.

4. Put info for the other parent only if you know or can estimate their income and expenses. If you have used estimates, put that. If you have any income info for the other parent, even an estimate, use that info. Explain in Other Factors for Consideration at Line 26 any income info or estimates you listed which you did not base on wage stubs or tax returns. The other parent will have a chance to correct any incorrect info.
5. If any party gets SSI, TANF, or Food Stamps, list that income on line 22(f), Income from Assistance Programs, and not line 1, Gross Monthly Income. You should list income from other common programs such as social security, worker's compensation, unemployment benefits, and pension or retirement benefits on line 1(e), "Other Income."
6. If you cannot get accurate income info about the other parent or estimate their income based on what you know, or you believe they are voluntarily unemployed or underemployed, follow the instructions for imputing income to that parent. See the WSCSS Definitions and Standards, INCOME STANDARD #6, on page 2.
7. Health Care Expenses (Part III): Just include expenses you pay regularly (example: monthly health insurance premium). Do not include doctor bills that may change over time. If you are listing health care expenses on lines 10a and 10b, you should also list monthly payments you actually made for those expenses on line 16a, Monthly Health Care Expenses Credit.
8. Daycare, Education & Travel Expenses: In section 11, you can put your daycare, tuition or other special childcare expense, and have that amount included in the transfer payment. Then mark the first box in section 21 of the Child Support Order under Other shared expenses: "Does not apply. The monthly amount covers all expenses, except health care expenses." If you are listing day care or other special expenses in part III of the Worksheets, you must also list monthly payments that parent actually made for those expenses on line 16b, Day Care and Special Expenses Credit.

In most cases, you should not list daycare, education and travel expenses here. Instead, you should list them in section 21 of the Child Support Order under Other shared expenses, after checking the parents will share the cost for the expenses listed below. This allows for future changes in these expenses. Then you may not need to change your support order later. The downside of putting these expenses in the Order instead of the Worksheets is that it may be harder to collect payment from the other parent for these expenses. DCS will help compute and collect day care and other special expenses.

9. In the “Other Factors for Consideration” part of the Worksheet, explain how you calculated income and expenses, and show factors that may allow “deviation” from the “standard calculation.” If there are special circumstances, list this info on the worksheet. See the “Limitation Standards” and the “Deviation Standards” on pages 3 - 4 of the Child Support Schedule to decide what to put.

You can also explain how you calculated the support amount. State how you calculated each parent’s income. If the income you put for someone is imputed or estimated, put how you figured it out. If you believe support should be less than the standard calculation, state how much it should be and why.

If a parent gets disability benefits like Social Security and the child is eligible for them on the parent’s account, you must report both parent’s and child’s shares under “net income.” You should then explain in Other factors for Consideration the child’s share of the benefit, who is currently getting the child’s benefit, and that the parent should get credit against their support obligation as long as the child’s benefit continues.

❖ Fill out the Worksheet Completely. It takes time and patience. The judge decides child support based on the worksheets.

---

10. Signature. Sign where it says on the last page. Put the date and place (city) you signed.

B. Financial Declaration of: – FL All Family 131

Caption. Fill out the caption, including your name in the title.

1. Your personal information. Give the info requested. Check yes if you are working and put your hire date. Check no if you are not currently working and give the info requested.

2. Summary of your financial information. Skip this section. Come back to it after filling out the rest of the form.

3. Income.

❖ If you do not know how much the other parent’s income is, give your best estimate, or use the support schedule’s instructions for imputing income.

Use the You column for your info. Use the Other Party column for the other parent. Put the income info and income deduction info requested. Make sure you use the correct column for each party.

Income from Benefits: If a parent gets Social Security Disability (SSDI) or workers' compensation (L&I, or other disability benefits from an employer), put that amount in Other Income.

Work-Related Disability Benefits: If a parent gets SSDI, L&I and some employer-paid disability benefits or Social Security retirement, and the child gets dependent benefits as a result, the payments the child gets directly counts as income to that parent even if it goes to the other parent or custodian. You should add those amounts under 3A to income of the parent getting benefits. Those benefits should also be credited as child support paid by the parent. The paying parent's support should go down dollar for dollar by the amount of dependent benefits their child gets directly for current child support. See RCW 26.18.190.

Deductions from Income: If you include any deductions from income other than income tax, FICA, and L&I payments, you must provide proof of each deduction. RCW 26.19.071\(5\). Paystubs may show union and pension plan deductions. You must have extra proof (such as pages from a collective bargaining agreement or employee handbook, or a letter from the employer) that these deductions are required. If pension deductions are voluntary, show documents proving you have had them taken for at least two years. Otherwise, the court may not allow it. If the other parent disputes your claims, you must have business records and receipts proving any business expenses you are claiming. Follow the instructions at the end of the Financial Declaration Form. You should attach private financial info to the Financial Source Documents Cover Sheet.

4. Other Income and Household Income.

A. Other income. Put the name and amount of any other income (including TANF, SSI, and/or food stamps) a parent gets regularly.

B. Household Income. List the gross monthly income of other adults in the household. That income is not included in calculating the basic child support obligation. The court might consider it if someone asks for a deviation from the standard child support amount.

5. Disputed income. If you think anyone will dispute a parent's income, state what you believe is the correct amount of that parent's income. Explain why you believe that is the amount.

6. Available Assets. List your assets - cash, and things you own that could easily be sold for cash. (Examples: stocks, bonds, and so on.)

7. Monthly Expenses after Separation. Put your monthly household expenses. Put your best estimate of each. Many expenses are not monthly. For those, take the actual amount you pay. Calculate the monthly average. Example: If you pay your car insurance every six months, take the amount you pay, divide it by 6, and put that amount in the blank under 7F.

Your total monthly expenses may end up being more than your net monthly household income. This is especially common for people who have a low income. You may put off paying a bill or make other cutbacks in your expenses. If your expenses are far more than your income, the court might ask how you are meeting. Be ready to show how you are doing it.

8. & 9. Section 8 is for giving more details about expenses you listed in 7.

11. Attorney Fees. If you hire a lawyer for this case, put those expenses here.

Signed at: Put the city or town and state where you are signing this form, and the date. Sign and print where it says to.

C. Sealed Financial Source Documents (Cover Sheet) – FL All Family 011

Use this when filing private financial documents with the court. Keep a blank copy of this form in case you file more financial documents later. You can attach one form to a stack of documents.

Caption. Fill out the caption.

Check the boxes next to each type of paper you are filing. If you are submitting child support worksheets, the instructions to the child support worksheets say which documents you must file.

- ❖ If you are afraid for your or the children's safety, you can block out info identifying your location on the copies you file with the court and give the other parties.

Submitted by: Check the box showing which party you are. Sign and print your name.

D. Child Support Order – FL All Family 130

Our instructions for this form cover several different types of family law cases:

- If this is a proposed order, it must show what you want the judge to order.
- If you have reached agreement, it must show your agreement.
- If you are filling it out after the judge has announced a decision, it must show what the judge decided, even if you disagree.

After the judge signs your Child Support Order, get a conformed (date-stamped) copy from the court clerk. The main packets you are using have more about orders the judge has signed.

Caption. Fill out the caption. Check if this order is temporary (entered before your case is over) or final (entered with other final orders at the end of the case).

Check the first box and skip to 2 if you do not want a judgment for back support, or the judge did not award a judgment for back support or attorney fees after hearing.

Check the second box and come back to fill in the table after filling out section 22 if one of these is true:

- This is a final order
- One or both parents owes child support or attorney fees (for temporary or final orders)

Findings and Order

2. Check the appropriate box.

3. Do not change this section.

4. Parents' contact and employment information. Read this.

5. Parents' Income. Put all the info you can. Each parent gets their own column. Use the same numbers as the Child Support Worksheets.

- ❖ If a parent has no income, or you do not know it, you must impute income to them (make a reasonable guess), unless there is reason not to. Examples: do not impute income to a parent who is in prison or long-term drug treatment. Check “imputed to this parent” and skip to 6 if you impute income.
  - ❖ If this order is based on the judge’s decision at your trial or hearing: put the income info the judge announced for each parent. Check the box showing if the judge found this amount was the parent’s imputed or actual income.

6. Imputed Income. Check the first box for a parent and skip to 7 if you are NOT imputing income.

Check This parent’s monthly net income is imputed because and then the boxes below showing why you are imputing income. Pages 2 and 6 of the Child Support Schedule Definitions and Standards have more about imputing income.

7. Limits affecting the monthly child support amount.

Check the first box and skip to 8 if any of these is true:

- The paying parent’s monthly income is more than 125% of the federal poverty guidelines.
- The child support amount will be 45% of the paying parent’s income or less.
- The parents’ combined monthly net income is less than $12,000.

Check the second box and then:

- low-income limits if in anywhere in line 8 of the worksheets, you put that a parent will pay $50 monthly.
- the 45% net income limit if the child support amount is more than 45% of the paying parent’s net income.
- Combined Monthly Net Income over $12,000 if that is true. Check the box immediately under if the paying parent will pay the advisory amount. Fill in the blank if it is more than the amount the economic table advises.

- ❖ Read the Child Support Schedule at page 3 to learn more about setting support when the parents' combined monthly net income is over $12,000.

8. Standard Calculation. List each party's name on the left-hand side of the first table. Put the amount listed on line 17 of the Worksheets for each party. Put the amounts from the Worksheets for both parents.

Check here if there is a Residential Split: check this only if you want or are agreeing to this, or the judge ordered it. Put which child is living with which parent. Put the amount a parent is paying support in this situation. Give the other info requested.

9. Deviation from standard calculation. Check No if you do not want a deviation or the judge denied a request for one. Check underneath why there will be no deviation. Fill in any blanks needed. If you check there is no good reason to approve, you must check the appropriate indented boxes underneath.

Check Yes if you agree to a deviation. Check underneath all your reasons. If you check A parent or parents in this case has or The children in this case, you must check the appropriate indented boxes underneath.

- ❖ You might check other reasons in the case of, for example, a parent's temporary unemployment to get schooling or training.

10. Monthly child support amount (transfer payment). Most people will check the first box, put the paying person's name in the first blank, and the other's in the second. You then list the children's names and ages. If you can calculate the amount of support for each child, list those amounts and the total at the bottom. Otherwise, just put the Total Monthly Transfer Amount on the last line.

- ❖ If support will be the standard calculation child support amount (not a deviation), the total support amount will be the amount listed at line 17 of the child support worksheets for the party this order covers.
  - ❖ If there are no special expenses or credits in lines 10-16 of the Worksheets, you can figure out the support for each child. Multiply the basic support obligation for each child (in the left-hand box at line 5 on the worksheets) by the paying person's share of income (line 6 of the Worksheets). The amounts for each child must add up to the Total Monthly Transfer Amount on the last line.

- ❖ If there are special expenses or credits in lines 10-16 of the Worksheets, you may not be able to figure out the amount per child.
  - ❖ If you are agreeing to a deviation or the judge ordered one after hearing, put the amount a parent will pay, after applying the deviation.

Check Residential Split and fill this part out only if you want or are agreeing to this, or the judge ordered it.

11. Starting date and payment schedule. In the blank, put when support under this order will start. (Usually, the earliest a new Support Order can become effective is the date the petition was filed and served.) Check the box showing the schedule. Fill in blanks where needed.

12. Step Increase. Most people will check Does not apply. Check Approved and fill in the blanks if all these are true:

- This changes an earlier support order.
- The support payment will go up by more than 30%.
- You agree payments should go up gradually

Check Denied if you do not agree to a gradual increase.

13. Periodic Adjustment. Most people will check the first box. Then you can adjust or change this order according to Washington law.

Check the second box if you agree to have the support amount adjusted periodically, such as every year due to small changes in income. Then check the boxes underneath showing when adjustments should take place. You must still go back to court for the adjustment. It does not automatically happen.

14. Payment Method. Check the first box if one of these is true:

- the child has ever gotten public assistance
- you want DCS to help collect support

Having DCS collect can be good. DCS must help you if the parent paying support pays late or stops paying. DCS will have documented proof of all payment dates and amounts.

- ❖ For more about the differences between enforcement and payment processing services, contact your local DCS office.

DCS Enforcement. Check the boxes that apply.

Direct Pay. Check this if you want this or the judge ordered this after hearing. Check the first box if you want payment by mail. Put the address where the paying parent should mail payments. Check the second box if you do not want payment by mail. Put how you want payments made.

- ❖ If you are concerned about your home address being in a public record, put an address where you can get your legal mail regularly even after the case is final. If you change your address for legal mail, give DCS, the other party and the court your new address as soon as possible by filing a Notice of Address Change (available at www.courts.wa.gov/forms). If you do not, orders could be entered without notice to you.

15. Enforcement through income withholding (garnishment). Usually, support is deducted from the paying parent's wages and sent to the registry. Most people check the first box.

Check the second box and the boxes after it that apply if you want or agree to a special exception, or the judge ordered this after hearing. The judge must find good cause not to order wage withholding.

- ❖ You should not be fired because your paycheck is being garnished for child support. If your employer threatens to fire you if you are garnished, contact DCS, a lawyer, your local legal services office, or CLEAR at 1-888-201-1014.

16. Temporary reduction if incarcerated: Read this introduction. Check the box only if the person who owes child support is in jail or prison for at least 6 months.

17. End date for support.

Most people will check the first box if the child is not yet in high school and does not have a disability, unless the judge has ordered otherwise.

Check the second box if you checked Reserved or Granted in 18, or the judge ordered one of those after hearing.

Check the third box if a child has a disability and will need support even after age 18. In the blank, put the child's name. Check the box immediately underneath showing when support should end. Fill in the blanks as appropriate.

- ❖ Child support usually ends when the child turns 18 years old or completes high school, whichever happens later. Check other if you want child support to end at some other time, or the judge ordered this. Put when support will end.

18. Post-secondary educational support (for college or vocational school).

Check Reserved if you want the court to decide later, but before the support obligation ends, if a parent should pay post-secondary support, or the judge reserved this decision after hearing. You might want to do this if, for example, the child is too young for you to know what her needs after high school will be, or the child's plans are not yet certain.

Check Granted if you want a parent to pay post-secondary support, or the judge ordered this. Check the first box immediately underneath if you agree the court should decide the amount later, or the judge decided to do this later. Example: You want the court to order both parents to pay for college but the child is not going soon.

Check the second box immediately underneath if you want the judge to decide the amount now. In the blank, put how much you want or what the judge ordered.

Check Denied if someone asked for post-secondary support but you do not want the court to order it, or the court denied the request.

Check Other to describe any agreement you and the other parent have made about post-secondary support, or to add specifics from the judge's ruling.

19. Tax issues.

If you know how you want to divide the tax exemption, check the second box and fill in the rest of the section to show what you want. For example, if you know you want the custodian to have the exemption, check the second box and the first box immediately underneath. In the first blank, put the custodian's name. In the second, put the children's names.

If you're not sure how you want to divide the tax exemption, check the first box. Then the IRS rules will apply.

The noncustodial parent can claim the children if the IRS' special rule for children of divorced or separated parents (or parents who live apart) applies. This rule requires, among other things:

- The custodial parent must sign a Form 8332, Release/Revocation of Release of Claim to Exemption for Child by Custodial Parent or a substantially similar statement, and
- The noncustodial parent must attach the Form 8332 or a similar statement to their tax return

Read the IRS' Publication 504, Divorced or Separated Individuals to learn more.

❖ The court can order one of you to have the tax exemption even if the IRS rules say otherwise, if it would be a real benefit for that person to have the exemption.

20. Medical Support. Check the first box and skip to 20 if true in your case.

Otherwise, check either Private health insurance ordered and all the boxes underneath it that apply, or Public health care coverage and all the applicable boxes underneath it, depending on what you want or can afford, or what the judge ordered. Public health coverage means Medicaid programs, such as Apple Health.

21. Health insurance if circumstances change or court has not ordered. Do not make any changes to this section.

22. Children's expenses not included in the monthly child support payment

Uninsured medical expenses: In each blank at the top of the chart, put a parent's name. Then check proportional share and put that parent's share of uninsured expenses from the worksheets at line 6 in the blank.

Other shared expenses: Check does not apply if that is what you want or what the judge ordered. Otherwise, check the second box. In the chart, check the children's expenses for whatever you want the order to cover or whatever the judge ordered. Then follow the instructions in uninsured medical expenses above for filling out the chart.

23. Past due child support, medical support and other expenses. Check the first box and skip to 23 if you do not want the judge to decide about past support or interest or the judge did not do so.

Check the second box if you want an order stating neither parent owes back amounts, or the judge ordered this. Put the date the judge will sign this order. Check all boxes that apply.

- ❖ Check the second box only if you know a paying parent owes no back child support, or the judge ordered this. If you check the first box, a paying parent could be excused from paying back support owed.

Check money judgments if you want the judge to award back support OR the judge did this after hearing. Then fill out the chart with the info requested.

- ❖ In from and to, put the dates the support is owed for.

24. Overpayment caused by change. Check does not apply and skip to 24 if true in your case, or the judge ordered this.

Check the second box if you are asking for an order that would cause someone to have overpaid support, or the judge made an order that did this. Give the info requested.

25. Other Orders. The judge may use this.

Ordered: LEAVE THIS FOR THE JUDGE.

Petitioner and Respondent or their lawyers fill out below: Check presented by me in the column for you (Petitioner or Respondent). Sign and print your name and the date where it says.

If any parent or child received government assistance: An assistant prosecutor who handles support cases in this county fills out and signs this section.

- ❖ If the child has ever gotten public assistance (TANF) or Medicaid, or is in foster care or out-of-home placement, and the lawyer for DCS will not sign the child support order, you must schedule a court hearing to present the order to the judge for signature and give the other parties advance notice of the hearing. This packet does not explain how to do that.

Parent or Non-Parent Custodian applies for DCS enforcement services: Check this, and sign and print your name and put the date if you want this. Having DCS collect can be good. DCS must help you if the parent paying support pays late or stops paying. DCS will have documented proof of the dates and amounts of all payments.

- ❖ For more about the differences between enforcement and payment processing services, contact your local DCS office.

WASHINGTON STATE CHILD SUPPORT SCHEDULE

DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS

Definitions

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, these definitions apply to the standards following this section. RCW 26.19.011.

Basic child support obligation: means the monthly child support obligation determined from the economic table based on the parties' combined monthly net income and the number of children for whom support is owed.

Child support schedule: means the standards, economic table, worksheets and instructions, as defined in chapter 26.19 RCW.

Court: means a superior court judge, court commissioner, and presiding and reviewing officers who administratively determine or enforce child support orders.

Deviation: means a child support amount that differs from the standard calculation.

Economic table: means the child support table for the basic support obligation provided in RCW 26.19.020.

Full-time: means the customary number of maximum, non-overtime hours worked in an individual's historical occupation, industry, and labor market. "Full-time" does not necessarily mean hours per week.

Instructions: means the instructions developed by the Administrative Office of the Courts pursuant to RCW 26.19.050 for use in completing the worksheets.

Standards: means the standards for determination of child support as provided in chapter 26.19 RCW.

Standard calculation: means the presumptive amount of child support owed as determined from the child support schedule before the court considers any reasons for deviation.

Support transfer payment: means the amount of money the court orders one parent to pay to another parent or custodian for child support after determination of the standard calculation and deviations. If certain expenses or credits are expected to fluctuate and the order states a formula or percentage to determine the additional amount or credit on an ongoing basis, the term "support transfer payment" does not mean the additional amount or credit.

Worksheets: means the forms developed by the Administrative Office of the Courts pursuant to RCW 26.19.050 for use in determining the amount of child support.

Application Standards

1. Application of the support schedule: The child support schedule shall be applied:
  - a. in each county of the state;
  - b. in judicial and administrative proceedings under titles 13, 26 and 74 RCW;
  - c. in all proceedings in which child support is determined or modified;
  - d. in setting temporary and permanent support;
  - e. in automatic modification provisions or decrees entered pursuant to RCW 26.09.100; and
  - f. in addition to proceedings in which child support is determined for minors, to adult children who are dependent on their parents and for whom support is ordered pursuant to RCW 26.09.100.

The provisions of RCW 26.19 for determining child support and reasons for deviation from the standard calculation shall be applied in the same manner by the court, presiding officers and reviewing officers. RCW 26.19.035(1).

2. Written findings of fact supported by the evidence: An order for child support shall be supported by written findings of fact upon which the support determination is based and shall include reasons for any deviation from the standard calculation and reasons for denial of a party's request for deviation from the standard calculation. RCW 26.19.035(2).
3. Completion of worksheets: Worksheets in the form developed by the Administrative Office of the Courts shall be completed under penalty of perjury and filed in every proceeding in which child support is determined. The court shall not accept incomplete worksheets or worksheets that vary from the worksheets developed by the Administrative Office of the Courts. RCW 26.19.035(3).
4. Court review of the worksheets and order: The court shall review the worksheets and the order setting child support for the adequacy of the reasons set forth for any deviation or denial of any request for deviation and for the adequacy of the amount of support ordered. Each order shall state the amount of child support calculated using the standard calculation and the amount of child support actually ordered. Worksheets shall be attached to the decree or order or if filed separately, shall be initialed or signed by the judge and filed with the order. RCW 26.19.035(4).

Income Standards

1. Consideration of all income: All income and resources of each parent's household shall be disclosed and considered by the court when the court determines the child support obligation of each parent. Only the income of the parents of the children whose support is at issue shall be calculated for purposes of calculating the basic support obligation. Income and resources of any other person shall not be included in calculating the basic support obligation. RCW 26.19.071(1).
2. Verification of income: Tax returns for the preceding two years and current paystubs shall be provided to verify income and deductions. Other sufficient verification shall be required for income and deductions which do not appear on tax returns or paystubs. RCW 26.19.071(2).
3. Income sources included in gross monthly income: Monthly gross income shall include income from any source, including: salaries; wages; commissions; deferred compensation; overtime, except as excluded from income in RCW 26.19.071(4)(h); contract-related benefits; income from second jobs except as excluded from income in RCW 26.19.071(4)(h); dividends; interest; trust income; severance pay; annuities; capital gains; pension retirement benefits; workers' compensation; unemployment benefits; maintenance actually received; bonuses; social security benefits; disability insurance benefits; and income from self-employment, rent, royalties, contracts, proprietorship of a business, or joint ownership of a partnership or closely held corporation. RCW 26.19.071(3).

Veterans' disability pensions: Veterans' disability pensions or regular compensation for disability incurred in or aggravated by service in the United States armed forces paid by the Veterans' Administration shall be disclosed to the court. The court may consider either type of compensation as disposable income for purposes of calculating the child support obligation. See RCW 26.19.045.

4. Income sources excluded from gross monthly income: The following income and resources shall be disclosed but shall not be included in gross income: income of a new spouse or domestic partner or income of other adults in the household; child support received from other relationships; gifts and prizes; temporary assistance for needy families; Supplemental Security Income; general assistance; food stamps; and overtime or income from second jobs beyond forty hours per week averaged over a twelve-month period worked to provide for a current family's needs, to retire past relationship debts, or to retire child support debt, when the court finds the income will cease when the party has paid off his or her debts. Receipt of income and resources from temporary assistance for needy families, Supplemental Security Income, general assistance and food stamps shall not be a reason to deviate from the standard calculation. RCW 26.19.071(4).

VA aid and attendant care: Aid and attendant care payments to prevent hospitalization paid by the Veterans Administration solely to provide physical home care for a disabled veteran, and special compensation paid under 38 U.S.C. Sec. 314(k) through (r) to provide either special care or special aids, or both to assist with routine daily functions shall be disclosed. The court may not include either aid or attendant care or special medical compensation payments in gross income for purposes of calculating the child support obligation or for purposes of deviating from the standard calculation. See RCW 26.19.045.

Other aid and attendant care: Payments from any source, other than veterans' aid and attendance allowance or special medical compensation paid under 38 U.S.C. Sec. 314(k) through (r) for services provided by an attendant in case of a disability when the disability necessitates the hiring of the services or an attendant shall be disclosed but shall not be included in gross income and shall not be a reason to deviate from the standard calculation. RCW 26.19.055.

5. Determination of net income: The following expenses shall be disclosed and deducted from gross monthly income to calculate net monthly income: federal and state income taxes (see the following paragraph); federal insurance contributions act deductions (FICA); mandatory pension plan payments; mandatory union or professional dues; state industrial insurance premiums; court-ordered maintenance to the extent actually paid; up to five thousand dollars per year in voluntary retirement contributions actually made if the contributions show a pattern of contributions during the one-year period preceding the action establishing the child support order unless there is a determination that the contributions were made for the purpose of reducing child support; and normal business expenses and self-employment taxes for self-employed persons. Justification shall be required for any business expense deduction about which there is a disagreement. Items deducted from gross income shall not be a reason to deviate from the standard calculation. RCW 26.19.071(5).

Allocation of tax exemptions: The parties may agree which parent is entitled to claim the child or children as dependents for federal income tax exemptions. The court may award the exemption or exemptions and order a party to sign the federal income tax dependency exemption waiver. The court may divide the exemptions between the parties, alternate the exemptions between the parties or both. RCW 26.19.100.

6. Imputation of income: The court shall impute income to a parent when the parent is voluntarily unemployed or voluntarily underemployed. The court shall determine whether the parent is voluntarily underemployed or voluntarily unemployed based upon that parent's assets, residence, employment and earnings history, job skills, educational attainment, literacy, health and age, criminal record, dependency court obligations, and other employment barriers, record of seeking work, the local job market, the availability of employers willing to hire the parent, the prevailing earnings level in the local community, or any other relevant factors. A court shall not impute income to a parent who is gainfully employed on a full-time basis, unless the court finds that the parent is voluntarily underemployed and finds that the parent is purposely underemployed to reduce the parent's child support obligation. Income shall not be imputed for an unemployable parent. Income shall not be imputed to a parent to the extent the parent is unemployed or significantly underemployed due to the parent's efforts to comply with court-ordered reunification efforts under chapter 13.34 RCW or under a voluntary placement agreement with an agency supervising the child. Except as provided below regarding high school students, in the absence of records of a parent's actual earnings, the court shall impute a parent's income in the following order of priority:
- (a) Full-time earnings at the current rate of pay;
  - (b) Full-time earnings at the historical rate of pay based on reliable information, such as employment security department data;
  - (c) Full-time earnings at a past rate of pay where information is incomplete or sporadic;
  - (d) Earnings of 32 hours per week at minimum wage in the jurisdiction where the parent resides if the parent is on temporary assistance for needy families (TANF) now or recently came off TANF or recently came off aged, blind, or disabled assistance benefits, pregnant women assistance benefits, essential needs and housing support, supplemental security income, or disability, has recently been released from incarceration, or is a recent high school graduate. Imputation of earnings at thirty-two hours per week under this provision is a rebuttable presumption;
  - (e) Full-time earnings at minimum wage in the jurisdiction where the parent resides if the parent has a recent history of minimum wage earnings, has never been employed and has no earnings history, or has no significant earnings history;
  - (f) Median net monthly income of year-round full-time workers as derived from the United States bureau of census, current population reports, or such replacement report as published by the bureau of census. (See "Approximate Median Net Monthly Income" table on page 7.) RCW 26.19.071(6).
- When a parent is currently enrolled in high school full-time, the court shall consider the totality of the circumstances of both parents when determining whether each parent is voluntarily unemployed or voluntarily underemployed. If a parent who is currently enrolled in high school is determined to be voluntarily unemployed or voluntarily underemployed, the court shall impute income at earnings of twenty hours per week at minimum wage in the jurisdiction where that parent resides. Imputation of earnings at twenty hours per week under this provision is a rebuttable presumption.

Allocation Standards

1. Basic child support: The basic child support obligation derived from the economic table shall be allocated between the parents based on each parent's share of the combined monthly net income. RCW 26.19.080(1).
2. Health care expenses: Health care costs are not included in the economic table. Monthly health care costs shall be shared by the parents in the same proportion as the basic support obligation. Health care costs shall include, but not be limited to, medical, dental, orthodontia, vision, chiropractic, mental health treatment, prescription medications, and other similar costs for care and treatment. RCW 26.19.080(2).
3. Day care and special child rearing expenses: Day care and special child rearing expenses, such as tuition and long distance transportation costs to and from the parents for visitation purposes, are not included in the economic table. These expenses shall be shared by the parents in the same proportion as the basic child support obligation. RCW 26.19.080(3).
4. The court may exercise its discretion to determine the necessity for and the reasonableness of all amounts ordered in excess of the basic child support obligation. RCW 26.19.080(4).

Limitations Standards

1. Limit at 45 percent of a parent's net income: Neither parent's child support obligation owed for all his or her biological or legal children may exceed 45 percent of net income except for good cause shown.
  - a. Each child is entitled to a pro rata share of the income available for support, but the court only applies the pro rata share to the children in the case before the court.
  - b. Before determining whether to apply the 45 percent limitation, the court must consider the best interests of the child(ren) and the circumstances of each parent. Such circumstances include, but are not limited to, leaving insufficient funds in the custodial parent's household to meet the basic needs of the child(ren), comparative hardship to the affected households, assets or liabilities, and any involuntary limits on either parent's earning capacity including incarceration, disabilities, or incapacity.
  - c. Good cause includes, but is not limited to, possession of substantial wealth, child(ren) with day care expenses, special medical need, educational need, psychological need, and larger families. RCW 26.19.065(1).
2. Presumptive minimum support obligation: When a parent's monthly net income is below 125% of the federal poverty guideline for a one-person family, a support order of not less than fifty dollars per child per month shall be entered unless the obligor parent establishes that it would be unjust to do so in that particular case. The decision whether there is a sufficient basis to go below the presumptive minimum payment must take into consideration the best interests of the child(ren) and circumstances of each parent. Such circumstances can include leaving insufficient funds in the custodial parent's household to meet the basic needs of the child(ren), comparative hardship to the affected households, assets or liabilities, and earning capacity. RCW 26.19.065(2)(a).
3. Self-support reserve: The basic support obligation of the parent making the transfer payment, excluding health care, day care, and special child-rearing expenses, shall not reduce his or her net income below the self-support reserve of 125% of the federal poverty level for a one-person family, except for the presumptive minimum payment of fifty dollars per child per month or when it would be unjust to apply the self-support reserve limitation after considering the best interests of the child(ren) and the circumstances of each parent. Such circumstances include, but are not limited to, leaving insufficient funds in the custodial parent's household to meet the basic needs of the child(ren), comparative hardship to the affected households, assets or liabilities, and earning capacity. This section shall not be construed to require monthly substantiation of income. (See the Self-Support Reserve memorandum on the courts' website www.courts.wa.gov/forms and at www.WashingtonLawHelp.org.) RCW 26.19.065(2)(b).

4. Income above twelve thousand dollars: The economic table is presumptive for combined monthly net incomes up to and including twelve thousand dollars. When combined monthly net income exceeds twelve thousand dollars, the court may exceed the maximum presumptive amount of support upon written findings of fact. RCW 26.19.065(3).

Deviation Standards

1. Reasons for deviation from the standard calculation include but are not limited to the following:
  - a. Sources of income and tax planning: The court may deviate from the standard calculation after consideration of the following:
    - i. Income of a new spouse or new domestic partner if the parent who is married to the new spouse or the parent who is in a domestic partnership with the new domestic partner is asking for a deviation based on any other reason. Income of a new spouse or domestic partner is not, by itself, a sufficient reason for deviation;
    - ii. Income of other adults in the household if the parent who is living with the other adult is asking for a deviation based on any other reason. Income of the other adults in the household is not, by itself, a sufficient reason for deviation;
    - iii. Child support actually received from other relationships;
    - iv. Gifts;
    - v. Prizes;
    - vi. Possession of wealth, including but not limited to savings, investments, real estate holdings and business interests, vehicles, boats, pensions, bank accounts, insurance plans or other assets;
    - vii. Extraordinary income of a child; or
    - viii. Tax planning considerations. A deviation for tax planning may be granted only if child(ren) would not receive a lesser economic benefit due to the tax planning;
    - ix. Income that has been excluded under RCW 26.19.071(4)(h) if the person earning that income asks for a deviation for any other reason. RCW 26.19.075(1)(a)
  - b. Nonrecurring income: The court may deviate from the standard calculation based on a finding that a particular source of income included in the calculation of the basic support obligation is not a recurring source of income. Depending on the circumstances, nonrecurring income may include overtime, contract-related benefits, bonuses or income from second jobs. Deviations for nonrecurring income shall be based on a review of the nonrecurring income received in the previous two calendar years. RCW 26.19.075(1)(b).

- c. Debt and high expenses: The court may deviate from the standard calculation after consideration of the following expenses:
- Extraordinary debt not voluntarily incurred;
  - A significant disparity in the living costs of the parents due to conditions beyond their control;
  - Special needs of disabled child(ren); or
  - Special medical, educational or psychological needs of the child(ren).
  - Costs anticipated to be incurred by the parents in compliance with court-ordered reunification efforts under chapter 13.34 RCW or under a voluntary placement agreement with an agency supervising the child. RCW 26.19.075(1)(c).

- d. Residential schedule: The court may deviate from the standard calculation if the child(ren) spend(s) a significant amount of time with the parent who is obligated to make a support transfer payment. The court may not deviate on that basis if the deviation will result in insufficient funds in the household receiving the support to meet the basic needs of the child or if the child is receiving temporary assistance for needy families. When determining the amount of the deviation, the court shall consider evidence concerning the increased expenses to a parent making support transfer payments resulting from the significant amount of time spent with that parent and shall consider the decreased expenses, if any, to the party receiving the support resulting from the significant amount of time the child spends with the parent making the support transfer payment. RCW 26.19.075(1)(d).

- e. Children from other relationships: The court may deviate from the standard calculation when either or both of the parents before the court have children from other relationships to whom the parent owes a duty of support.
- The child support schedule shall be applied to the parents and children of the family before the court to determine the presumptive amount of support.
  - Children from other relationships shall not be counted in the number of children for purposes of determining the basic support obligation and the standard calculation.
  - When considering a deviation from the standard calculation for children from other relationships, the court may consider only other children to whom the parent owes a duty of support. The court may consider court-ordered payments of child support for children from other relationships only to the extent that the support is actually paid.
  - When the court has determined that either or both parents have children from other relationships, deviations under this section shall be based on consideration of the total circumstances of both households. All child support obligations paid, received, and owed for all children shall be disclosed and considered. RCW 26.19.075(1)(e).

2. All income and resources of the parties before the court, new spouses or domestic partners, and other adults in the household shall be disclosed and considered as provided. The presumptive amount of support shall be determined according to the child support schedule. Unless specific reasons for deviation are set forth in the written findings of fact and are supported by the evidence, the court shall order each parent to pay the amount of support determined by using the standard calculation. RCW 26.19.075(2).

3. The court shall enter findings that specify reasons for any deviation or any denial of a party's request for any deviation from the standard calculation made by the court. The court shall not consider reasons for deviation until the court determines the standard calculation for each parent. RCW 26.19.075(3).
4. When reasons exist for deviation, the court shall exercise discretion in considering the extent to which the factors would affect the support obligation. RCW 26.19.075(4).
5. Agreement of the parties is not by itself adequate reason for any deviations from the standard calculations. RCW 26.19.075(5).

Benefits paid that apply toward a person's child support obligation

If an injured worker, person with disabilities, deceased person, retired person, or veteran who owes a child support obligation receives one of these benefits:

- Department of Labor and Industries payments
- Self-Insurer's payment
- Social Security Administration:
  - Social Security disability dependency benefits
  - Retirement benefits
  - Survivors insurance benefits
- Veteran's Administration benefits and shows that the child or the child's household receives a payment from those benefits, then, the amount of the payment made on behalf of the child or on account of the child applies toward the person's child support obligation for the same period covered by the benefit.

Post-Secondary Education Standards

1. The child support schedule shall be advisory and not mandatory for post-secondary educational support. RCW 26.19.090(1)
2. When considering whether to order support for post-secondary educational expenses, the court shall determine whether the child is in fact dependent and is relying upon the parents for the reasonable necessities of life. The court shall exercise its discretion when determining whether and for how long to award post-secondary educational support based upon consideration of factors that include but are not limited to the following: age of the child; the child's needs; the expectations of the parties for their child(ren) when the parents were together; the child(ren)'s prospects, desires, aptitudes, abilities or disabilities; the nature of the post-secondary education sought and the parent's level of education, standard of living and current and future resources. Also to be considered are the amount and type of support that the child would have been afforded if the parents had stayed together. RCW 26.19.090(2).
3. The child must enroll in an accredited academic or vocational school, must be actively pursuing a course of study commensurate with the child's vocational goals and must be in good academic standing as defined by the institution. The court-ordered post-secondary educational support shall be automatically suspended during the period or periods the child fails to comply with these conditions. RCW 26.19.090(3).

4. The child shall also make available all academic records and grades to both parents as a condition of receiving post-secondary educational support. Each parent shall have full and equal access to the post-secondary education records as provided by statute (RCW 26.09.225). RCW 26.19.090(4).
5. The court shall not order the payment of post-secondary educational expenses beyond the child's twenty-third birthday, except for exceptional circumstances, such as mental, physical, or emotional disabilities. RCW 26.19.090(5).
6. The court shall direct that either or both parents' payments for post-secondary educational expenses are made directly to the educational institution if feasible. If direct payments are not feasible, then the court in its discretion may order that either or both parents' payments are made directly to the child if the child does not reside with either parent. If the child resides with one of the parents, the court may direct that the parent making the support transfer payments make the payments to the child or to the parent who has been receiving the support transfer payments. RCW 26.19.090(6).

WASHINGTON STATE CHILD SUPPORT SCHEDULE

INSTRUCTIONS FOR WORKSHEETS

Worksheets:

Immediately below the form title, check the box showing if the worksheets are proposed or an order signed by the judge. If they are proposed, check the box showing who proposed them and put your name.

Fill in your county, the case number, and the names and ages of only those children whose support is at issue.

Write your name above “(Column 1)” and write the other parent’s name above “(Column 2).” In the rest of the worksheet, list your information under “Column 1” and list the other parent’s information under “Column 2.”

Part I: Income

Pursuant to INCOME STANDARD #1: Consideration of all income, “only the income of the parents of the child(ren) whose support is at issue shall be calculated for purposes of calculating the basic support obligation.” (See page 1.)

Pursuant to INCOME STANDARD #2: Verification of income, “tax returns for the preceding two years and current paystubs are required for income verification purposes. Other sufficient verification shall be required for income and deductions which do not appear on tax returns or paystubs.” (See page 1.)

Gross Monthly Income

Gross monthly income is defined under INCOME STANDARD #3: Income sources included in gross monthly income. (See page 1.)

Income exclusions are defined under INCOME STANDARD #4: Income sources excluded from gross monthly income. (See page 2.) Excluded income must be disclosed and listed in Part VIII of the worksheets.

Monthly Average of Income:

- If income varies during the year, divide the annual total of the income by 12.
- If paid weekly, multiply the weekly income by 52 and divide by 12.
- If paid every other week, multiply the two-week income by 26 and divide by 12.
- If paid twice a month (bi-monthly), multiply the bi-monthly income by 24 and divide by 12

LINE 1a, Wages and Salaries: Enter the average monthly total of all salaries, wages, contract-related benefits, bonuses, and income from overtime and second jobs that is not excluded from income by RCW 26.19.071(4)(i).

LINE 1b, Interest and Dividend Income: Enter the average monthly total of dividends and interest income.

LINE 1c, Business Income: Enter the average monthly income from self-employment, rent, royalties, contracts, proprietorship of a business, or joint ownership of a partnership or closely held corporation.

LINE 1d, Maintenance Received: Enter the monthly amount of maintenance actually received.

LINE 1e, Other Income: Enter the average monthly total of other income. (Other income includes, but is not limited to: income tax refunds, trust income, severance pay, annuities, capital gains, pension retirement benefits, workers compensation, unemployment benefits, social security benefits and disability insurance benefits.)

LINE 1f, Imputed Income: Enter the imputed gross monthly income for a parent who is voluntarily unemployed, underemployed or if you do not have records of a parent’s actual earnings. Refer to “INCOME STANDARD #6: Imputation of income.” (See page 2.) Impute income using the first method possible based on the information you have in the following order:

Calculate full-time earnings using either:

1. Current rate of pay;
2. Historical rate of pay based on reliable information;
3. Past rate of pay, if current information is incomplete or sporadic;
4. Earnings of 32 hours per week at minimum wage where the parent lives if the parent is on TANF now or recently came off government assistance, is recently released from incarceration, or is a recent high school graduate (if currently enrolled in high school and voluntarily unemployed or underemployed, impute income at 20 hours per week at minimum wage where the parent lives); or
5. Minimum wage where the parent lives when the parent has a history of minimum wage, has never been employed, or has no significant earnings history.

Historical rate of pay information may be available from the Division of Child Support. Use form 18-701: “Request for Income Information for Purposes of Entering a Child Support Order”, available online at: <http://www.dshs.wa.gov/dcs/Resources/Forms.asp> employed, or has no significant earnings history.

If you impute income using one of the five methods, above, enter the amount in line 1f. Also, in line 26 of the Worksheets, explain which method you used to impute income and how you calculated the amount of imputed income.

If you cannot use any of the above methods, impute the parent's net monthly income using the table below, and enter the appropriate amount for the parent's age and gender on line 1f and on line 3. The table, below, shows net income, after deductions. So if you impute using this table, you will not enter any deductions on the worksheet under line 2. Leave lines 2a through 2i blank. For this parent, go to line 4.

Also, in line 26 of the Worksheets, explain that net income was imputed using the Approximate Median Net Monthly Income Table.

Approximate Median Net Monthly Income

MALE	age	FEMALE
$2,088	15-24	$1,934
$3,243	25-34	$2,816
$4,098	35-44	$3,321
$4,232	45-54	$3,365
$4,318	55-64	$3,288
$4,972	65 +	$3,858

U.S. Census Bureau, Current Population Survey, 2018 Annual Social and Economic Supplement, Table PINC-01. Selected Characteristics of People 15 Years Old and Over by Total Money Income in 2017, Work Experience in 2017, Race, Hispanic Origin, and Sex, Worked Full Time, Year Round.

[Net income has been determined by subtracting FICA (7.65 percent) and the tax liability for a single person (one withholding allowance).]

LINE 1g, Total Gross Monthly Income: Add the monthly income amounts for each parent (lines 1a through 1f) and enter the totals on line 1g.

Monthly Deductions from Gross Income

Allowable monthly deductions from gross income are defined under INCOME STANDARD #5: Determination of net income. (See page 2.)

Monthly Average of Deductions: If a deduction is annual or varies during the year, divide the annual total of the deduction by 12 to determine a monthly amount.

LINE 2a, Income Taxes: Enter the net monthly amount actually owed for state and federal income taxes. (The amount of income tax withheld on a paycheck may not be the actual amount of income tax owed due to tax refunds, deductions, etc. It is appropriate to consider tax returns from prior years as indicating the actual amount of income tax owed if income has not changed.)

LINE 2b, FICA/Self Employment Taxes: Enter the total monthly amount of FICA, Social Security, Medicare and Self-employment taxes owed.

LINE 2c, State Industrial Insurance Deductions: Enter the monthly amount of state industrial insurance deductions such as Medical Aid Fund Tax, Accident Fund Tax, and Supplement Pension Fund Tax. Self-insured employers may use different terms for the deductions.

LINE 2d, Mandatory Union/Professional Dues: Enter the monthly cost of mandatory union or professional dues.

LINE 2e, Mandatory Pension Plan Payments: Enter the monthly cost of mandatory pension plan payments amount.

LINE 2f, Voluntary Retirement Contributions: Enter the monthly cost of voluntary Retirement Contributions. Divide the amount of the voluntary retirement contribution, up to $5,000 per year, by 12 to calculate the monthly cost. (For more information regarding limitations on the allowable deduction of voluntary retirement contributions, refer to INCOME STANDARD #5: Determination of net income. See page 2.)

LINE 2g, Maintenance Paid: Enter the monthly amount of maintenance actually paid pursuant to a court order.

LINE 2h, Normal Business Expenses: If self-employed, enter the amount of normal business expenses. (Pursuant to INCOME STANDARD #5: Determination of net income, "justification shall be required for any business expense deduction about which there is a disagreement." See page 2.)

LINE 2i, Total Deductions From Gross Income: Add the monthly deductions for each parent (lines 2a through 2h) and enter the totals on line 2i.

LINE 3, Monthly Net Income: For each parent, subtract total deductions (line 2i) from total gross monthly income (line 1g) and enter these amounts on line 3.

LINE 4, Combined Monthly Net Income: Add the parents' monthly net incomes (line 3) and enter the total on line 4.

LINE 5, Basic Child Support Obligation: In the work area provided on line 5, enter the basic support obligation amount determined for each child. Add these amounts together and enter the total in the box on line 5. (To determine a per child basic support obligation, see the following economic table instructions.)

Economic Table Instructions

To use the Economic Table to determine an individual support amount for each child:

- Locate in the left-hand column the combined monthly net income amount closest to the amount entered on line 4 of Worksheet (round up when the combined monthly net income falls halfway between the two amounts in the left-hand column);

- Locate on the top row the family size for the number of children for whom child support is being determined (when determining family size for the required worksheets, do not include child(ren) from other relationships) and circle the number in the column below the family size that is across from the net income. The amount circled is the basic support amount for each child.

LINE 6, Proportional Share of Income: Divide the monthly net income for each parent (line 3) by the combined monthly net income (line 4) and enter these amounts on line 6. (The entries on line 6 when added together should equal 1.00.)

Part II: Basic Child Support Obligation

LINE 7, Each Parent's Basic Child Support Obligation without consideration of low income limitations: Multiply the total basic child support obligation (amount in box on line 5) by the income share proportion for each parent (line 6) and enter these amounts on line 7. (The amounts entered on line 7 added together should equal the amount entered on line 5.)

LINE 8, Calculating low income limitations: Fill in only those that apply:

To calculate the low-income limitation standards in lines 8b and 8c, you will need to know the self-support reserve amount, which is 125% of the current federal poverty guideline for a one-person family. As of January 15, 2020, the self-support reserve is $1,329. The guideline and self-support reserve change roughly annually. To check the current self-support reserve amount go to the courts' web site at: www.courts.wa.gov, or go to www.WashingtonLawHelp.org. Enter the self-support reserve amount in the space provided in line 8. (For more information, see Limitation Standard #2 on page 3 of the Definitions and Standards.)

8a. Is combined net income less than $1,000? If combined net monthly income on line 4 is less than $1,000, enter each parent's presumptive support obligation of $50 per child. Do not enter an amount on line 8a if combined income on line 4 is more than $1,000.

8b. Is monthly net income less than self-support reserve? For each parent whose monthly net income on line 3 is less than the self-support reserve, enter the parent's presumptive support obligation of $50 per child. Do not use this box for a parent whose net income on line 3 is greater than the self-support reserve.

8c. Is monthly net income equal to or more than self-support reserve? Subtract the self-support reserve from line 3 and enter this amount or enter $50 per child whichever is greater. Do not use this box if the amount is greater than the amount in line 7.

LINE 9, Each parent's basic child support obligation after calculating applicable limitations: For each parent, enter the lowest amount from line 7, 8a – 8c, but not less than the presumptive $50 per child.

Part III: Health Care, Day Care, and Special Child Rearing Expenses

Pursuant to ALLOCATION STANDARD #4: "the court may exercise its discretion to determine the necessity for and the reasonableness of all amounts ordered in excess of the basic child support obligation." (See page 2.)

Pursuant to ALLOCATION STANDARD #2: Health care expenses and #3: Day care and special child rearing expenses, health care, day care, and special child rearing expenses shall be shared by the parents in the same proportion as the basic support obligation. (See page 2.) NOTE: The court order should reflect that health care, day care and special child rearing expenses not listed should be apportioned by the same percentage as the basic child support obligation.

Monthly Average of Expenses: If a health care, day care, or special child rearing expense is annual or varies during the year, divide the annual total of the expense by 12 to determine a monthly amount.

Health Care Expenses

LINE 10a, Monthly Health Insurance Premiums Paid For Child(ren): List the monthly amount paid by each parent for health care insurance for the child(ren) of the relationship. (When determining an insurance premium amount, do not include the portion of the premium paid by an employer or other third party and/or the portion of the premium that covers the parent or other household members.)

LINE 10b, Uninsured Monthly Health Care Expenses Paid For Child(ren): List the monthly amount paid by each parent for the child(ren)'s health care expenses not reimbursed by insurance. .

LINE 10c, Total Monthly Health Care Expenses: For each parent add the health insurance premium payments (line 10a) to the uninsured health care payments (line 10b) and enter these amounts on line 10c

LINE 10d, Combined Monthly Health Care Expenses: Add the parents' total health care payments (line 10c) and enter this amount on line 10d.

Day Care and Special Expenses

LINE 11a, Day Care Expenses: Enter average monthly day care costs.

LINE 11b, Education Expenses: Enter the average monthly costs of tuition and other related educational expenses.

LINE 11c, Long Distance Transportation Expenses: Enter the average monthly costs of long distance travel incurred pursuant to the residential or visitation schedule.

LINE 11d, Other Special Expenses: Identify any other special expenses and enter the average monthly cost of each.

LINE 11e, Total Day Care and Special Expenses: Add the monthly expenses for each parent (lines 11a through 11d) and enter these totals on line 11e.

LINE 12, Combined Monthly Total of Day Care and Special Expenses: Add the parents' total expenses (line 11e) and enter this total on line 12.

LINE 13, Total Health Care, Day Care and Special Expenses: Add the health care expenses (line 10d) to the combined monthly total of day care and special expenses (line 12) and enter this amount on line 13.

LINE 14, Each Parent's Obligation For Health Care, Day Care And Special Expenses: Multiply the total health care, day care, and special expense amount (line 13) by the income proportion for each parent (line 6) and enter these amounts on line 14.

LINE 15, Gross Child Support Obligation: For each parent, add the basic child support obligation (line 9) to the obligation for extraordinary health care, day care and special expenses (line 14). Enter these amounts on line 15.

Part V: Child Support Credits

Child support credits are provided in cases where parents make direct payments to third parties for the cost of goods and services which are included in the standard calculation support obligation (e.g., payments to an insurance company or a day care provider).

LINE 16a, Monthly Health Care Expenses Credit: Enter the total monthly health care expenses amounts from line 10c for each parent.

LINE 16b, Day Care And Special Expenses Credit: Enter the total day care and special expenses amounts from line 11e for each parent.

LINE 16c, Other Ordinary Expense Credit: If approval of another ordinary expense credit is being requested, in the space provided, specify the expense and enter the average monthly cost in the column of the parent to receive the credit. (It is generally assumed that ordinary expenses are paid in accordance with the child(ren)'s residence. If payment of a specific ordinary expense does not follow this assumption, the parent paying for this expense may request approval of an ordinary expense credit. This credit is discretionary with the court.)

LINE 16d, Total Support Credits: For each parent, add the entries on lines 16 a through c and enter the totals on line 16d.

Part VI: Standard Calculation/Presumptive Transfer Payment

LINE 17, For Each Parent: subtract the total support credits (line 16d) from the gross child support obligation (line 15) and enter the resulting amounts on line 17. If the amount is less than $50 per child for either parent, then enter the presumptive minimum support obligation of $50 per child, instead of the lower amount.

Part VII: Additional Informational Calculations

LINE 18, 45% of Each Parent's Net Income From Line 3: For each parent, multiply line 3 by .45. Refer to LIMITATIONS Standards #1: Limit at 45% of a parent's net income.

LINE 19, 25% of Each Parent's Basic Support Obligation from Line 9: For each parent, multiply line 9 by .25.

Part VIII: Additional Factors for Consideration

Pursuant to INCOME STANDARD #1: Consideration of all income: "all income and resources of each parent's household shall be disclosed and considered by the court when the court determines the child support obligation of each parent." (See page 1.)

LINE 20 a-h, Household Assets: Enter the estimated present value of assets of the household.

LINE 21, Household Debt: Describe and enter the amount of liens against assets owned by the household and/or any extraordinary debt.

Other Household Income

LINE 22a, Income of Current Spouse or Domestic Partner: If a parent is currently married to or in a domestic partnership with someone other than the parent of the child(ren) for whom support is being determined, list the name and enter the income of the present spouse or domestic partner.

LINE 22b, Income of Other Adults In The Household: List the names and enter the incomes of other adults residing in the household.

LINE 22c, Gross income from overtime or from second jobs the party is asking the court to exclude per INCOME STANDARD #4, Income sources excluded from gross monthly income (see page 2).

LINE 22d, Income of Children: If the amount is considered to be extraordinary, list the name and enter the income of children residing in the home.

LINE 22e, Income from Child Support: List the name of the child(ren) for whom support is received and enter the amount of the support income. Do not include the child(ren) for whom support is being determined.

LINE 22f, Income from Assistance Programs: List the program and enter the amount of any income received from assistance programs. (Assistance programs include, but are not limited to: temporary assistance for needy families, SSI, general assistance, food stamps and aid and attendance allowances.)

LINE 22g, Other Income: Describe and enter the amount of any other income of the household. (Include income from gifts and prizes on this line.)

LINE 23, Nonrecurring Income: Describe and enter the amount of any income included in the calculation of gross income (LINE 1g) which is nonrecurring. (Pursuant to DEVIATION STANDARD #1b: Nonrecurring income, “depending on the circumstances, nonrecurring income may include overtime, contract-related benefits, bonuses or income from second jobs.” See page 3.)

LINE 24, Monthly Child Support Ordered for Other Children. List the names and ages and enter the amount of child support owed for other children, (not the children for whom support is being determined). Is the support paid? Check ☐ Yes or ☐ No.

LINE 25, Other Child(ren) Living in Each Household: List the names and ages of children, other than those for whom support is being determined, who are living in each household.

LINE 26, Other Factors For Consideration: In the space provided list any other factors that should be considered in determining the child support obligation. (For information regarding other factors for consideration, refer to DEVIATION STANDARDS. See page 3.) Also use this space to explain how you calculated the income and deductions in lines 1 and 2.

Nonparental Custody Cases: When the children do not reside with either parent, the household income and resources of the children’s custodian(s) should be listed on line 26.

9. Deviation from standard calculation

Should the monthly child support amount be different from the standard calculation?

- ☐ No – The monthly child support amount ordered in section 10 is the same as the standard calculation listed in section 8 because ((check one):

- ☐ No one asked for a deviation from the standard calculation. ((Skip to 10.)

- ☐ There is not a good reason to approve the deviation requested by ((name/s): _____). The facts supporting this decision are ((check all that apply):

- ☐ detailed in the Worksheets, Part VIII, lines 20 through 26.

- ☐ the parent asking for a deviation:

- ☐ has a new spouse or domestic partner with income of $ _____.

- ☐ lives in a household where other adults have income of $ _____.

- ☐ has income from overtime or a second job that was excluded in section 5 above.

- ☐ other ((specify): _____)

- ☐ Yes – The monthly child support amount ordered in section 10 is different from the standard calculation listed in section 8 because ((check all that apply):

- ☐ A parent or parents in this case has:

- ☐ children from other relationships.
- ☐ paid or received child support for children from other relationships.
- ☐ gifts, prizes, or other assets.
- ☐ income that is not regular (non-recurring income) such as bonuses, overtime, etc.
- ☐ unusual unplanned debt (extraordinary debt not voluntarily incurred).
- ☐ tax planning considerations that will not reduce the economic benefit to the children.
- ☐ very different living costs, which are beyond their control.
- ☐ The children in this case:
  - ☐ spend significant time with the parent who owes support. The non-standard amount still gives the other parent's household enough money for the children's basic needs. The children do not get public assistance (TANF).
  - ☐ have extraordinary income.
  - ☐ have special needs because of a disability.
  - ☐ have special medical, educational, or psychological needs.
- ☐ There are (or will be) costs for court-ordered reunification or a voluntary placement agreement.
- ☐ The parent who owes support has shown it is not fair to have to pay the $50 per child presumptive minimum payment.
- ☐ The parent who is owed support has shown it is not fair to apply the self-support reserve (calculated on lines 8.a. – c. of the Worksheets).

10. Monthly child support amount (transfer payment)

After considering the standard calculation in section 8, and whether or not to apply a deviation in section 9, the court orders the following monthly child support amount (transfer payment).

- ☐ ((Name): _____ must pay child support to ((name): _____ each month as follows for the children listed below ((add lines for additional children if needed):

Child's Name	Age	Amount
1.		$
2.		$

Total monthly child support amount:		$

- ☐ Residential Split – Each parent has at least one of the children from this relationship living with them most of the time. ((Name): _____ must pay child support to ((name): _____ each month as follows:

Total monthly child support amount: $

11. Starting date and payment schedule

The monthly child support amount must be paid starting ((month, year): _____ on the following payment schedule:

- ☐ in one payment each month by the ____ day of the month.
☐ in two payments each month: ½ by the ____ and ½ by the ____ day of the month.
☐ other ((specify): _____
_____
_____

12. Step increase or decrease (for modifications or adjustments only)

- ☐ Does not apply.
- ☐ Approved – The court is changing a final child support order. The monthly child support amount is increasing or decreasing by more than 30 percent from the last final child support order. This causes significant financial hardship to the parent who owes or receives support, so the increase will be applied in two equal steps:
- On ((date): _____, six months after the Starting Date in section 11, the monthly child support amount will be the full amount listed in section 10.
  - For 6 months from the Starting Date in section 11 above, the monthly child support amount will be an amount exactly half way between the old monthly amount and the new monthly amount for a total of $ _____ each month.
- ☐ Denied – The court is changing a final child support order ((check one):
- ☐ but the monthly payment increased by less than 30%.
  - ☐ and the monthly payment increased by more than 30%, but this does not cause a significant hardship to the parent who owes support.

13. Periodic Adjustment

☐ Child support may be changed according to state law. The court is not ordering a specific periodic adjustment schedule below.

☐ Any party may ask the court to adjust child support periodically on the following schedule without showing a substantial change of circumstances:

The Motion to Adjust Child Support Order may be filed:

☐ every ____ months.

☐ on ((date/s): _____

☐ other ((describe condition or event): _____

Important! A party must file a Motion to Adjust Child Support Order ((form FL Modify 521), and the court must approve a new Child Support Order for any adjustment to take effect.

☐ Deadlines, if any ((for example, deadline to exchange financial information, deadline to file the motion): _____

14. Payment Method ((check either Registry or Direct Pay)

☐ Registry – Send payment to the Washington State Support Registry. The Division of Child Support (DCS) will forward payments to the person owed support and keep records of all payments.

Address for payment: Washington State Support Registry
PO Box 45868, Olympia, WA 98504

Phone number/s: 1 (800) 922-4306 or 1 (800) 442-5437

Important! If you are ordered to send your support payments to the Washington State Support Registry, and you pay some other person or organization, you will not get credit for your payment.

DCS Enforcement ((if Registry is checked above):

☐ DCS will enforce this order because ((check all that apply):

☐ this is a public assistance case.

☐ one of the parties has already asked DCS for services.

☐ one of the parties has asked for DCS services by signing the application statement at the end of this order (above the Warnings).

☐ DCS will not enforce this order unless one of the parties applies for DCS services or the children go on public assistance.

☐ Direct Pay – Send payment to the other parent or non-parent custodian by:

☐ mail to: _____ street address or PO box city state zip

or any new address the person owed support provides to the parent who owes support. ((This does not have to be a home address.))

☐ other method: _____
_____

15. Enforcement through income withholding (garnishment)

DCS or the person owed support can collect the support owed from the income, earnings, assets, or benefits of the parent who owes support, and can enforce liens against real or personal property as allowed by any state's child support laws without notice to the parent who owes the support.

If this order is not being enforced by DCS and the person owed support wants to have support paid directly from the employer, the person owed support must ask the court to sign a separate income withholding order requiring the employer to withhold income and make payments. ((Chapter 26.18 RCW.))

Income withholding may be delayed until a payment becomes past due if the court finds good reason to delay.

☐ Does not apply. There is no good reason to delay income withholding.

☐ Income withholding will be delayed until a payment becomes past due because ((check one):

☐ the child support payments are enforced by DCS, and there are good reasons in the children's best interest not to withhold income at this time. If this is a case about changing child support, previously ordered child support has been paid on time.

List the good reasons here: _____

☐ the child support payments are not enforced by DCS and there are good reasons not to withhold income at this time.

List the good reasons here: _____

☐ the court has approved the parents' written agreement for a different payment arrangement.

16. Temporary reduction if incarcerated (abatement)

Important! Read Support Abatement Warnings at the end of this order.

If the person who owes support is incarcerated:

- The total monthly child support amount may be temporarily reduced to $10 while the person who owes support is in jail, prison, or a correctional facility for at least six months (or serving a sentence of more than six months), and has no income or assets available to pay the support.
- If reduced, the support amount will be $10 a month.
- Beginning the fourth month after the person who owes support is released, support will be 50% of the original amount, or $50 per child, whichever is more.
- One year after release, support will return to the original amount in section 10.

- Reinstatement of the support amount at 50% does not automatically apply, if a Petition to Modify Child Support Order is filed during the period of abatement.

☐ The person who owes support qualifies for abatement. Monthly child support is temporarily reduced (abated) to $10 and will be reinstated as described above.

17. End date for support

Support must be paid for each child until the court signs a different order or ((check one):

☐ ~~((for a temporary order only) the court signs a different order or the child turns 18.~~

☐ the child turns 18 or is no longer enrolled in high school, whichever happens last, unless the court makes a different order in section 18.

☐ the child turns 18 or is emancipated, unless the court makes a different order in section 18.

☐ after ((child's name): _____ turns 18. Based on information available to the court, it is expected that this child will be unable to support them self and will remain dependent past the age of 18. Support must be paid until ((check one):

☐ this child is able to support them self and is no longer dependent on the parents.

☐ other: _____

☐ other ((specify): _____

18. Post-secondary educational support (for college or vocational school)

☐ Reserved – A parent or non-parent custodian may ask the court for post-secondary educational support at a later date without showing a substantial change of circumstances by filing a Petition to Modify Child Support Order (form FL Modify 501). The Petition must be filed before child support ends as listed in section 17.

☐ Granted – The parents must pay for the children's post-secondary educational support. Post-secondary educational support may include support for the period after high school and before college or vocational school begins. The amount or percentage each person must pay ((check one):

☐ will be decided later. The parties may make a written agreement or ask the court to set the amount or percentage by filing a Petition to Modify Child Support Order (form FL Modify 501).

☐ is as follows ((specify): _____

_____

☐ Denied – The request for post-secondary educational support is denied.

☐ Other ((specify): _____

_____

19. Tax Issues

Important! Although personal tax exemptions are currently suspended under federal law through tax year 2025, other tax benefits may flow from claiming a child as dependent.

- ☐ The parties will follow the law and IRS rules about claiming children on tax forms.
- ☐ The parties have the right to claim the children as their dependents for purposes of personal tax exemptions and associated tax credits on their tax forms as follows ((check one)):
- ☐ Every year – ((name)): _____
has the right to claim ((children's names)): _____;
and ((name)): _____
has the right to claim ((children's names)): _____.
- ☐ Alternating – ((name)): _____ has the right to claim the children for ((check one)): ☐ even ☐ odd years and ((name)): _____ has the right to claim the children for the opposite years.
- ☐ Other ((specify)): _____
_____

For tax years when a non-custodial parent has the right to claim the children, the parents must cooperate to fill out and submit IRS Form 8332 in a timely manner.

20. Medical Support

Important! Read the Medical Support Warnings at the end of this order. Medical Support includes health insurance ((both public and private)) and cash payments towards premiums and uninsured medical expenses.

- ☐ The court is not ordering how healthcare coverage must be provided for the children because the court does not have enough information to determine the availability of accessible healthcare coverage for the children (coverage that could be used for the children's primary care). The law requires every parent to provide or pay for medical support. DCS) or any parent can enforce this requirement. (Skip to 21.)
- ☐ Private health insurance ordered. ((Name)): _____ must pay the premium to provide health insurance coverage for the children. The court has considered the needs of the children, the cost and extent of coverage, and the accessibility of coverage.
- ☐ The other parent must pay their proportional share* of the premium paid. Health insurance premiums (check one):
- ☐ are included on the Worksheets (line 14). No separate payment is needed.
- ☐ are not included on the Worksheets. Separate payment is needed. A parent or non-parent custodian may ask DCS or the court to enforce payment for the proportional share.
- * Proportional share is each parent's percentage share of the combined net income from line 6 of the Child Support Schedule Worksheets.

- ☐ The other parent is not ordered to pay for any part of the children's insurance because ((explain): _____

A parent cannot be excused from providing health insurance coverage through an employer or union solely because the child receives public healthcare coverage.

- ☐ A parent has been ordered to pay an amount that is more than 25% of their basic support obligation (Worksheets, line 19). The court finds this is in the children's best interest because: _____

A parent cannot be ordered to pay an amount towards healthcare coverage premiums that is more than 25% of their basic support obligation ((Worksheets, line 19) unless the court finds it is in the best interest of the children.

- ☐ Public healthcare coverage. ((Name): _____ has enrolled the child in public healthcare coverage and does not have available at no cost, accessible health insurance coverage through an employer or union.

- ☐ The other parent must enroll the child in accessible health insurance coverage through their employer or union up to 25% of their basic support obligation.

- ☐ The other parent must pay their proportional share* of the premium for public healthcare coverage for the child. Public healthcare premiums ((check one):

☐ are included on the Worksheets (line 14). No separate payment is needed.

☐ are not included on the Worksheets. Separate payment is needed. A parent or non-parent custodian may ask DCS or the court to enforce payment for the proportional share.

\ Proportional share is each parent's percentage share of the combined net income from line 6 of the Child Support Schedule Worksheets.*

- ☐ Other ((specify): _____

21. Healthcare coverage if circumstances change or court has not ordered

If the parties' circumstances change, or if the court is not ordering how healthcare coverage must be provided for the children in section 20:

- A parent, non-parent custodian, or DCS can enforce the medical support requirement.

- If a parent does not provide proof of accessible healthcare coverage (coverage that can be used for the children's primary care), that parent must:
  - Get (or keep) insurance through their work or union, unless the insurance costs more than 25% of their basic support obligation (line 19 of the Worksheets),
  - Pay their share of the other parent's monthly premium up to 25% of their basic support obligation (line 19 of the Worksheets), or
  - Pay their share of the monthly cost of any public healthcare coverage, such as Apple Health or Medicaid, which is assigned to the state.

22. Children's expenses not included in the monthly child support amount

Uninsured medical expenses – Each parent is responsible for a share of uninsured medical expenses as ordered below. Uninsured medical expenses include premiums, co-pays, deductibles, and other healthcare costs not paid by healthcare coverage.

Support Abatement Warnings!

The Division of Child Support (DCS), the person required to pay support, the payee under this order, or the person entitled to receive support may ask the court or DCS to temporarily reduce child support to $10 per month when the person required to pay support is in jail, prison, or a correctional facility for at least six months, or serving a sentence of more than six months.

There is a rebuttable presumption that an incarcerated person cannot pay child support. DCS, the payee under this order, or the person receiving the support may overcome the presumption by showing that the person required to pay support has income or other assets available to pay support.

When a request for abatement is made, DCS will review its records and other available information, and decide if abatement is appropriate. DCS will send notice of the decision to the person required to pay support, and to the payee under this order or the person entitled to receive support. Any of those persons may object to DCS's decision.

If at any point during the period of incarceration, a person or DCS later learns of income or other assets available to pay support, a request to terminate or reverse the abatement may be made through DCS or the Office of Administrative Hearings.

Medical Support Warnings!

The parents must keep the Support Registry informed about whether they have access to healthcare coverage for the children at a reasonable cost and to provide the policy information for any such coverage.

If you are ordered to provide children's healthcare coverage...

You have 20 days from the date of this order to send:

- proof that the children are covered , or
- proof that healthcare coverage is not available as ordered.

Send your proof to the other parent or to the Support Registry (if your payments go there).

If you do not provide proof of healthcare coverage:

- The other parent or the support agency may contact your employer or union, without notifying you, to ask for direct enforcement of this order (RCW 26.18.170), and
- The other parent may:
  - Ask the DCS for help,
  - Ask the court for a contempt order, or
  - File a Petition in court.

Don't cancel your employer or union health insurance for your children unless the court approves or your job ends, and you no longer qualify for insurance as ordered in section 20.

If an insurer sends you payment for a medical provider's service:

- you must send it to the medical provider if the provider has not been paid; or
- you must send the payment to whoever paid the provider if someone else paid the provider; or
- you may keep the payment if you paid the provider.

If the children have public healthcare coverage, the state can make you pay for the cost of the monthly premium.

Always inform the Support Registry and any parent if your access to healthcare coverage changes or ends.
