

THE MITRE CORPORATION
FASTLICENSE INSTRUCTIONS

1. Select a MITRE technology to license.
2. Download the FastLicense package pdf, which contains a questionnaire and a license.
3. Complete the questionnaire in its entirety. Any questions related to completing the questionnaire may be emailed to fastlicense@mitre.org.
4. Carefully read through the entire license to ensure agreement with all of the terms and conditions contained therein. Do not alter or write in any areas of the license, other than in the signatory area, or the license will be deemed null and void.
5. Complete the company information and signatory portions of the license. The agreement may be filled out electronically, but must be printed and signed, as electronic signatures are not accepted. Failure to do so can result in the delay or denial of license issuance. Scan the signed form and create a pdf.
6. Email the questionnaire and the license as one pdf file to fastlicense@mitre.org with subject line: “FastLicense request for MITRE’s [Insert name of technology] by [Insert company name]”. Do not include any payment.
7. Upon MITRE’s approval of the FastLicense package, the license will be countersigned by MITRE and a copy of the fully executed license along with instructions for payment will be emailed back to the applicant.
8. Upon receiving payment, instructions to download the material via secure ftp will be emailed to the applicant.
9. If a FastLicense request cannot be approved by MITRE, a notification will be emailed to the applicant.

Disclaimer: Completing the FastLicense package and returning it to MITRE does not constitute or guarantee an agreement with MITRE. The posting of the FastLicenses does not constitute an offer to license any MITRE technology by MITRE. Only a license fully executed by MITRE grants a license to the MITRE technology. To discuss non-FastLicense agreements, contact MITRE’s Technology Transfer Office (techtransfer@mitre.org)

Minimum requirements

1. MITRE qualifies and reviews all potential licensing requests.
2. Only U.S. owned and based companies may apply for a FastLicense.
3. Potential licensees must conduct research, development and manufacturing within U.S.
4. The FastLicense package must be completed in its entirety, accurately and legibly.
5. FastLicense terms and conditions are non-exclusive and non-negotiable.

THE MITRE CORPORATION
SOFTWARE LICENSE AGREEMENT FOR OPTION ANALYSIS SOFTWARE

Licensee's name and address:

THIS SOFTWARE LICENSE AGREEMENT FOR OPTION ANALYSIS SOFTWARE ("Agreement") is made by and between The MITRE Corporation ("MITRE"), a Delaware corporation with offices at 7515 Colshire Drive, McLean, Virginia 22102-3481, and the above referenced licensee ("Licensee") and is effective as of last date executed below ("Effective Date"). It is understood by the parties to this Agreement that MITRE has developed and is the owner of the Option Analysis software and related technologies (collectively referred to as "Option Analysis", as further described in Appendix A, attached hereto and incorporated herein).

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual covenants, promises and conditions set forth herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. License.

1.1 Grant of License.

(a) Subject to the terms contained herein, MITRE hereby grants and Licensee hereby accepts a perpetual, non-refundable, non-exclusive license to use, sublicense, copy, create Derivative Works (as defined in Section 2), and to modify Option Analysis for commercial purposes, however this grant specifically excludes using, sublicensing, copying, creating Derivative Works, and modifying Option Analysis for analytic and assessment services of corporate communications and marketing communications in the U.S. for non-U.S. government entities. Licensee shall not assign, transfer, or otherwise dispose of its right under this Agreement, except that Licensee shall have the right to assign its license rights in full to a single U.S. subsidiary in which Licensee is fifty percent (50%) or more owner.

(b) Licensee shall not investigate, produce, install, distribute, market, or in any way use Option Analysis in any manner inconsistent with the limited rights expressly conferred by this Agreement. Licensee may not redistribute MITRE's source code.

(c) Licensee acknowledges and agrees that Option Analysis is and shall remain the sole, exclusive and proprietary property of MITRE. MITRE is not obligated to provide support for Option Analysis.

(d) Licensee agrees that it shall, in all documentation, advertising, web sites, presentations or other public releases about any products or applications that contain or use Option Analysis or any portion thereof, identify MITRE as the creator of the software. Licensee shall do so by placing the "MITRE Technology Applied" logo and the following or similar acknowledgement: "This system incorporates elements of the software developed by The MITRE Corporation on behalf of the U.S. Government." MITRE is the registered trademark of The MITRE Corporation. Licensee shall not use the names of The MITRE Corporation, MITRE, nor any adaptation thereof except as described above without the prior written consent of MITRE, and Licensee agrees that it shall not create, market or use, in any way, any company name, domain name or website that incorporates MITRE or Option Analysis without the express permission and consent of MITRE. Licensee agrees to acknowledge, and require that all sublicensees acknowledge, MITRE's ownership of Option Analysis in all public disclosures of Option Analysis. The use of Option Analysis in any Licensee-developed product or any Derivative Work does not imply endorsement of the product or Derivative Work by MITRE.

1.2 Materials. MITRE shall furnish to Licensee all available materials embodying MITRE's proprietary data, information and processes ("Materials", and collectively with the Option Analysis, the "Licensed Products”) necessary to enable Licensee to use and evaluate Option Analysis in accordance with the rights granted herein. Licensee may copy such Materials for the purposes permitted under this Agreement.

1.3 Non-Disclosure. The license granted herein includes the disclosure to Licensee of certain proprietary information and data, including but not necessarily limited to the Materials. Such information and data shall be protected by Licensee from disclosure, duplication, or reproduction in whole or in part except as necessary to fulfill Licensee's authorization herein. Such information and data shall be used solely for the purpose of fulfilling the requirements of this Agreement and shall not be transferred or disclosed to any other entity without the prior, written authorization of MITRE except as authorized herein. Such information and data shall be disclosed only to Licensee's employees or sublicensee's employees who have a demonstrated need to know, and are informed of the restrictions contained in this provision. Licensee and sublicensee shall employ diligent efforts to maintain the confidentiality of the information and data supplied to it by MITRE herein. Such reasonable care and action shall be at least equivalent to that which Licensee would normally be expected to exercise with regard to its own intellectual property which it maintains as confidential or proprietary. In the event that a non-disclosure agreement (“NDA”) exists and applies between MITRE and Licensee related to any portion of the subject matter of this Agreement, that NDA shall be considered a part of this Agreement and incorporated herein.

2. Title. Option Analysis is the confidential and proprietary information and trade secret of MITRE. The Materials, including, by way of example but not by limitation, all written materials, text or graphics contained in any media, and audiovisual materials, are the copyright works of MITRE. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to grant to Licensee any ownership or other interest in Option Analysis or in the Materials other than the license set forth in Section 1 of this Agreement. All applicable rights to patents, copyrights, trade secrets, or other intellectual property rights in Option Analysis and in the Materials are and shall remain solely and exclusively in MITRE. All rights, including intellectual property rights, in any derivative works, modifications, enhancements, or derivations to Option Analysis or the Materials (“Derivative Works”) made by Licensee shall remain solely and exclusively in Licensee; provided that all rights in the underlying work on which such Derivative Works are based shall remain solely and exclusively in MITRE.

3. Fees.

3.1 License Fee. Upon execution of this Agreement Licensee shall pay MITRE a one-time license fee of $5,000.00 (“License Fee”).

3.2 Technical Support. For the first year following the Effective Date, MITRE will provide Licensee with one (1) technical interchange meeting between MITRE and Licensee to ensure successful transfer of Option Analysis at no additional charge. This technical interchange meeting will be provided, as available, and at the mutual convenience of the parties and shall not exceed one (1) hour in duration. Additional reasonable technical support may be provided, as available, at the MITRE’s then-current hourly rate. MITRE will invoice and Licensee agrees to pay for any additional technical support provided.

3.3 All fees are quoted in and due and payable in U.S. Dollars and do not include any duties or taxes. Licensee shall pay all federal, state, and local sales, use, or other applicable taxes that may be imposed upon the provision or the use of the Licensed Products and/or services.

4. Warranty and Limitation of Liability. MITRE warrants that it has the right to grant Licensee a license to the Licensed Products and that the Licensed Products do not infringe upon any copyright or patent of any third party. Except for the foregoing warranty, the Licensed Products are provided “AS IS” without any warranty of any kind.

IN NO EVENT WILL MITRE BE LIABLE FOR ANY GENERAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, EXEMPLARY OR SPECIAL DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR FOR THE USE BY LICENSEE OR SUBLICENSEE OF OPTION ANALYSIS, EVEN IF MITRE HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

EXCEPT FOR DAMAGES RELATED TO THE WARRANTIES GIVEN HEREIN, LICENSEE HEREBY INDEMNIFIES AND HOLDS HARMLESS MITRE, ITS BOARD OF TRUSTEES, OFFICERS, AGENTS, AND EMPLOYEES FROM ANY AND ALL LIABILITY FOR DAMAGES TO LICENSEE OR ANY THIRD PARTY WHICH MAY ARISE FROM LICENSEE'S USE OF THE LICENSED PRODUCTS HEREUNDER, OR ANY THIRD PARTY'S USE OF THE LICENSED PRODUCTS AS PROVIDED FOR UNDER THIS AGREEMENT. SUCH INDEMNIFICATION SHALL INCLUDE, BUT NOT BE LIMITED TO, USE OF OPTION ANALYSIS, MATERIALS, AND ANY SYSTEM PRODUCED BY LICENSEE, OR FOR ANY OTHER

USE GRANTED UNDER THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT, AND SHALL INCLUDE ANY AND ALL DAMAGES, INCLUDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND ANY OTHER RELATED COSTS AND EXPENSES. ADDITIONALLY, MITRE SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR DAMAGES ARISING UNDER ANY USE OF THE LICENSED PRODUCTS NOT AUTHORIZED HEREUNDER.

5. Termination. This Agreement may be terminated by MITRE for any material breach of this Agreement by Licensee which is not cured within thirty (30) days of MITRE's written notice to Licensee of such breach. Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason, Licensee shall immediately return to MITRE all copies of Option Analysis provided to it by MITRE, as well as all copies of the Materials in its possession or control.

6. Notices. Any notice required or permitted to be given under this Agreement shall be in writing, and shall be deemed served upon receipt by the intended party at the addresses listed above for each party.

7. Export Control Regulations. The export from the United States or the subsequent re-export of the Licensed Products is subject to compliance with United States export control and munitions control restrictions. Licensee agrees that in the event it seeks to export the Licensed Products or said information, or any derivative work thereof, it assumes full responsibility for obtaining all necessary export licenses and approvals and for assuring compliance with applicable re-export restrictions.

8. Government Rights. Option Analysis or portion thereof, may have been developed for and/or funded by the U.S. Government, and the U.S. Government may retain certain rights in Option Analysis for noncommercial uses. Licensee agrees that it shall not include a charge for the Option Analysis in any sales or license of derivative products to the U.S. Government.

9. Amendment. This Agreement may not be amended, modified, or extended except by a written instrument signed by an authorized representative of MITRE and Licensee.

10. Waiver and Severability. Any failure of MITRE to enforce, at any time or for any period of time, any of the provisions under this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of the right of MITRE to enforce such provisions unless said waiver is in writing, and signed by an authorized representative of MITRE. If any term, condition, or provision in this Agreement is found to be invalid, unlawful or unenforceable to any extent, the parties shall endeavor in good faith to agree to such amendments that will preserve, as far as possible, the intentions expressed in this Agreement. If the parties fail to agree on such an amendment, such invalid term, condition or provision will be severed from the remaining terms, conditions and provisions, which will continue to be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

11. Nonsolicitation of Employees. Licensee shall not solicit for employment any employee of MITRE in any manner associated or familiar with the subject matter of this Agreement or Option Analysis. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "solicit for employment" shall include, but not be limited to, enticing any said employee of MITRE to terminate his or her relationship with MITRE. "Solicit for employment" shall not include discussions and/or offers of employment to any said employee of MITRE who initiates such discussions regarding employment with Licensee. The foregoing restrictions shall apply and continue for a period of three (3) years from the Effective Date of this Agreement. This provision shall apply reciprocally with respect to the solicitation of employment of Licensee's employees by MITRE.

12. Governing Law. This Agreement and all disputes or claims arising out of or related to this Agreement shall be governed, construed, and enforced in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia without regard to Virginia conflicts of laws rules and Licensee agrees to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Virginia courts.

13. Entire Agreement. Each party acknowledges that it has read this Agreement, understands it, and agrees to be bound to its terms, and further agrees that this is the complete and exclusive statement of the agreement between the parties, which supersedes and merges all prior proposals, understandings and all other agreements, oral or written, between the parties relating to this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the authorized parties have executed this Agreement as of the Effective Date.
