

Family Camp 2008
"Growing in Relationships"
Relationship Survey

The following questions are to help each one of us start thinking about the theme of our Family Camp this year: "Growing in Relationships." All of your answers are confidential. You will not be asked to turn them in to anyone, nor will you be asked to share your answers during any of our camp sessions. (You are, however, free to discuss and share your answers with others if you so choose.)

This survey is to help you analyze where you are at in your various relationships. Knowing more accurately who we are at this stage of our life experience will help each of us to make application from the teaching sessions and decide how we can become more like Christ in all our relationships. Our prayer is that each one of us will be better husbands/wives, moms/dads, children, brothers and sisters, neighbors, friends, and co-workers.

Take your time, and be as honest and accurate as possible. God bless you.
