

Song of Solomon Character Reference Sheet

Name: _____

Throughout your reading of Song of Solomon, take special note of the characters' origins and their names. Each time you encounter a character, please note any page numbers that indicate characterization, as well as the page that the reason they have their name is described in the text.

Not all characters will have an instance of origin, but all will have instances of characterization.

Additionally, take a minute to research the character's name itself. What does the name mean? Is it a reference to another text?
