

Doctors Day Celebrations Report

Academic Society, NSS Unit of JSS Medical College have organized Doctors Day at Sri Rajendra Centenary auditorium, JSS hospital, Mysuru on 1st July 2016. Dr Bharathi, Professor and Head, Department of ENT and Chairman academic society formally welcomed the gathering. Dr H Basavanagowdappa, Principal, JSS Medical College gave an overview of the life and achievement of Dr B C Roy. He remembered the contributions made him in the medical and social upliftment of the people. He described how Dr Roy established himself from a doctor to a politician and a social reformer.

Dr Shyam Prasad Shetty, Professor and Head Department of CTVS, introduced chief Dr. Thimappa Hegde to the gathering, this was followed by felicitation of Dr. Thimappa Hegde. Receiving the felicitation Dr Thimappa Hegde, an eminent Neurosurgeon of Narayana Hrudayalaya, delivered an oration on the topic "Is there a meaning for suffering"?. He elaborated on need for patience, passion and compassion for the medical profession among doctors. He mentioned that there is a solution for every complicated problem which we need to search and ensure. He also described how to convert scar to star and how to find cosmos out of chaos.

In his presidential remarks, Dr B Manjunatha, Registrar, JSS university, appreciated the efforts of doctors in building a healthy society. Dr. P A Kushalappa, Director Academics, JSS University, Dr. M D Ravi, Director JSS hospital, Dr. Guruswamy Medical Superintendent, JSS hospital, Dr. B M Balaraj Dr. G V Manjunath, Vice Principal of JSS Medical College were present. Dr Praveen Kulkarni, NSS Officer proposed vote of thanks. Mr. Jayashankar, Office Superintendent, JSS Medical College coordinated the event.