

PO Internship Contract – PO 371

Student: _____

Advisor: _____

The PO internship is three credits and approximately 120 work hours. It entails work that is politically or public policy (or “politics or public policy”) oriented, and may include a variety of activities: policy analysis, political campaigning, lobbying and/or political activism, support to a government agency (at the local/state or federal level), engagement with the legal system, political research, etc.

Learning Goals:

1. To “practice” in the field of politics.
2. To observe political activity beyond the classroom.

Assessment:

1. A reflective journal, for the length of the internship, to be evaluated by supervising faculty.
2. Confirmation and evaluation of student work by the employer.

The above student will intern with the following company/group/agency:

By signing this contract, supervising faculty indicates that they have confirmed with the student and the employer the parameters of this internship.

Supervising Faculty

Date

By signing this contract, the student indicates that they are aware of the parameters and responsibilities that this internship will entail.

Student

Date