

Book Report #1

Little Book Report

Due Date: Monday, October 8th

Book Selection: Fictional Free Choice

Choose a chapter book at your reading level (not too easy, not too hard). Your book must be at least 50 pages.

Assignment: Little Book Report

Take your Little Book Report papers and turn it into a book.

You will be given ONE copy of your Little Book Report papers. It is suggested that you make a rough draft of your report on a separate sheet of paper and then create a final draft on the Little Book Report papers.

You will create your Little Book Report by:

- writing the title and author of your book
- describing the setting of your book
- drawing a picture of the setting
- writing about the main character (Who is he/she? What is interesting about him/her?)
- drawing a picture of the main character
- describing your favorite part of the book
- drawing a picture of your favorite scene
- attaching all the pages in the correct order

Your Little Book Report should be written to the best of your ability using your best printing, spelling, and English skills.

Make your Little Book Report exciting and colorful. BE CREATIVE!

Rubric: The rubric that will be used to grade your Little Book Report can be found on the back of this paper. Use this rubric as your guide when you work on your book report.

Time Line:

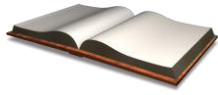

- Monday, September 17th – book has been found and reading has begun
- Monday, October 1st – book has been read and written assignment has begun
- Monday, October 8th - book report is due at the beginning of class

Reminder: Book reports not turned into class on the morning of October 8th will receive a lowered grade.

1 Day Late – Grade will be lowered one whole grade

2 or more Days Late – Receive half credit

Happy Reading 😊
