

Diploma in Mountain Medicine Learning Schedule

Certificate Level (Combination online and face to face) – based on UIAA Curriculum

Learning Event	Student Learning Hours (600 in total)	Description of learning	Assessment
Induction Module (online)	80	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> General preparation for the programme Specific reading/activities as preparation for module 1 2 exam questions 	All activities and reading compulsory. Feedback from teaching staff (formative assessment)
Module 1 (face to face and online)	120	Face to face teaching and activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Practical clinical assessment of skills – Primary Survey (summative assessment) Post module 1 assessment – 4 written essay exam questions (summative assessment)
Pre-Module 2 (online)	40	Specific reading/activities as preparation for module 2	All activities and reading compulsory. Feedback from teaching staff (formative feedback)
Module 2 (face to face)	60	Face to face teaching and activities	Practical assessment of navigation (summative assessment)
Pre-Module 3 (online)	40	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Specific reading/activities as preparation for module 3 2 exam questions 	All activities and reading compulsory. Feedback from teaching staff (formative feedback)
Module 3 (face to face and online)	120	Face to face teaching and activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Practical assessment of navigation (summative assessment) Post module 3 assessment – 4 written essay exam questions (summative assessment)
Pre-Module 4	60	Specific reading/activities as preparation for module 4	All activities and reading compulsory. Feedback from teaching staff (formative feedback)
Module 4 (face to face)	60	Face to face teaching and activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Practical assessment of mountaineering skills (summative assessment) Practical assessment of clinical skills (summative assessment)

Diploma Level (Predominantly Online)

Learning Event	Student Learning Hours (600 in total)	Description of Learning	Assessment
Diploma Level Residential (face to face and online)	16	Introduction to diploma level study and research methods as they relate to Mountain Medicine	Formative assessment
Module 5 – Research Methods (online)	140	Introduction to fundamentals of mountain medicine research	Development of a research proposal (formative and summative assessment)
Module 6 – Best Bets Literature Review (online)	140	Production of a clinically relevant mountain medicine review using Best Bets methodology	Completion of Best Bets review (formative and summative assessment)
Modules 7-8 (online)	140 (X2)	Self-directed project (X2)	Project write-up (X2) (formative and summative assessment)

Alice Breton – May 2017